MARCONI COMPANY TO CONDUCT PERUVIAN POSTAL SYSTEM

Contract for 25 Years Begins May 1—To Get 5 Per Cent of Gross Receipts, Half of Profits.

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, April 1.—Sweeping changes in the Peruvian postal system will result from the contract negotiated with the Marconi Co. by the Government of that country, according to a statement to the London Times by Godfrey Isaacs, managing director of the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Co. Limited. His statement confirms recent reports from Lima that the Marconi Company will administer Peruvian postal telegraphs and wireless systems for a period of 25 years, beginning May 1, at receiving 5 per cent of the gross receipts, and 50 per cent of the annual profits.

The agreement gives the Marconi Company the sole and exclusive use of all international wireless stations within the republic, and possession of all telephone services except a few which are being operated on concessions already granted by certain municipalities.

Many old postal customs, Isaacs states, will cease, for instance stamps will be sold at postoffices instead of at lottery and tobacco stores, and the Peruvian government's postal service will no longer be able to use the postal and telegraph services of the country gratis.

753 INDICTMENTS IN REGISTRATION INQUIRY PROBABLE

Names of All Persons Not Found by Police in Canvass to Be Submitted to Grand Jury.

90 INDICTMENTS HAVE BEEN VOTED

Police Reports of Investigations in 17th Ward Indicate Irregularities in Negro Precincts.

With the grand jury continuing its registration fraud inquiry today, it was announced from the Circuit Attorney's office that indictments probably would be voted to cover all of the names found by the police canvass to be illegally on the registration books. The police canvass thus far has disclosed 753 such names. Of these 233 were reported today as an addition to the 520 which were in the grand jury's hands.

The grand jury yesterday, on the second day of its investigation, voted about 90 indictments charging illegal registration. The names of the accused are names of real or mythical persons appearing on the registration books, but not found by policemen who made a canvass of the places from which the names were registered.

The names on which the indictments were returned have not been made public.

The Circuit Attorney said he wanted to make it clear that any person who could prove a legal right to vote need not fear to go to the polls next Tuesday, even though his name may be among those covered by the indictments.

The purpose of the indictments, he said, was to have a basis for prosecutions on charges of illegal voting if an attempt is made to vote fraudulently registered names at the polls next Tuesday. Copies of the names will be given to policemen stationed at the polls and to election judges and clerks.

A person voting one of those names will not be interfered with until he has completed the act of voting. He may then be questioned as to his right to vote the name and if he cannot prove his right, he will be arrested and charged with illegal voting, the penalty for which is from two to five years in the penitentiary.

It was learned that one of the matters to be submitted for consideration of the grand jury was that in some of the wards with a large floating population the names of persons not authorized to vote are registered with the knowledge of practical politicians of both parties. These illegally registered names constitute a reserve force which, under certain political conditions, might be used in an election by either party in accordance with "trades" and agreements made by politicians.

Argument on Quash Motion.

After hearing arguments today Circuit Judge Hall took under advisement a motion to quash a subpoena duces tecum which he issued last Tuesday to compel Emory Chase, proprietor of the Garrick Hotel, 523 Chestnut street, and the Ivy House, 11 North Sixth street, to produce the registers of those hotels before the grand jury. The police canvass showed that persons registered from those places could not be found.

Refers to Wife's Charges.

Referring to Mrs. Sullivan's charge that her financier husband is the father of a 20-month-old son born to "Mrs. Florence H. Leeds," former musical revue girl, the decision, said: "The defendant had answered her answer and charges and conducted upon the plaintiff of similar character as charged by him against her and such acts are supported by affidavits of different persons."

"She does not seek a divorce, but pleads reclamation against the defendant as a defense. If the acts and conduct as charged against each other are sustained, neither will be entitled to a decree."

"If these charges are established the plaintiff and defendant will find themselves in the same position as before the commencement of the action, except that they will have had their day in court, or perhaps several days, as to matters affecting them, and this means time, labor and expenditure of money."

Question of Letters.

The decision said it was "a debatable question" whether the letters alleged to have been written to Mrs. Stillman by the Indian guide, one of her husband's servants, "should be received upon the plaintiff's affidavit, unaccompanied by other affidavits."

Guy Stillman, the infant whose legitimacy was attacked by Stillman and who was named co-defendant with his mother, "will bear a stain

$7500 A MONTH ALIMONY GRANTED

Court Fixes Amount of Temporary Payment and Allows $35,000 Counsel Fees and $12,500 Expenses.

By the Associated Press.
POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., April 1.—Temporary alimony of $7500 a month, counsel fees of $36,000 and $12,500 for expenses were fixed today for Mrs. Anne U. Stillman by Supreme Court Justice Joseph Morschauer, in the suit for divorce instituted against her by James A. Stillman, president of the National City Bank of New York.

Mrs. Stillman had asked for alimony of $10,000 a month and $75,000 counsel fees. Justice Morschauer made public his decision after he had transmitted it to the Court Clerk at White Plains along with affidavits and pleadings in the case.

Letters Are Ruled Out.

In his decision the Justice ruled out of the divorce suit as confidential and privileged the alleged "fession" letter written to Stillman by his wife. He also ruled out letters alleged to have been written to Mrs. Stillman by Ferd Beauvais, an Indian guide, who was named in the banker's complaint as correspondent and accused of being the father of Mrs. Stillman's infant son, Guy.

The decision set forth that Mrs. Stillman had produced evidence in her answer to the banker's complaint and that both husband and wife made charges founded upon an allegation of infidelity.

"A husband or wife is not competent to testify against the other" on such allegations, the decision said. The Justice decided that the affidavits to which the letters were appended contained matters that Stillman could not testify to, and it was upon this ground that the communications were barred.

Justice Morschauer pointed out that his inhibition against admitting the alleged messages from Beauvais to Mrs. Stillman applied only to the motion under consideration, and that they might be offered again in connection with later motions.

Referring to the alleged letter written to Stillman by his wife, the admission of which her attorneys objected and which, it was charged by counsel for the banker, she wrote "in a moment of hysteria, implicating herself," the decision said:

"Communications and transactions between husband and wife were early referred to by the wife, and neither could be compelled to disclose what took place between them, and neither was a competent witness to testify as to such transactions or communications of a confidential nature or induced by the marital relation."

"From experience it was found that far less would result from the exclusion of such testimony than from its admission. It may in individual cases work hardship, but the destruction of confidence between husband and wife would cause much misery and affect the marriage relation. This rule is founded upon sound public policy."

Animal Left Vessel to Chase Cat and Was Desperate.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, April 1.—Thor, a sea-going dog, was left aboard the steamship Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his face. The dog was left behind when the liner sailed.

The cat chase over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a howling. He was recognized by one of his master's friends, who ordered a tug, placed Thor aboard and sped down the bay, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North Sea wreckage during the war, and since has been the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

BANK HELD UP; $10,000 TAKEN

By the Associated Press.
SUMMITT, Ill., April 1.—Three masked robbers held up the Summit State Bank at 10 o'clock this morning, firing two shots at Fred Mandel, cashier, and escaped with $10,000.

The loot was cash taken from the cashier's tray and money drawers of the cashier, and from the safe, which Mandel was compelled to open. The robbers escaped in a motor car, which awaited them outside.

Four persons were in the bank when the robbers entered, including Miss Oscar II and a bookkeeper, all were herded into the vault.

FUND TO PAY RENT FOR NEEDY FAMILIES IN MILWAUKEE

Judge Tells of Plan for Relief, Coincident With Flood of Eviction Cases.

By the Associated Press.
MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 1.—Milwaukee will have a rent payment relief bureau, it is announced by Judge Henry Cummings, Chief Judge of the Civil Court, who said he had been swamped with cases due to tenants being unable to pay rent.

"In many of the cases the defendants have small children dependent on them," said Judge Cummings. "The landlords are often in no better position and cannot afford to postpone rent collections. A plan was suggested whereby a fund would be established. The tenant, unable to pay his rent, is sued for eviction. If, after investigation, the tenant is found to be deserving, the court will issue an order for one month's rent."

"The tenant will be placed on his honor to pay back the money as soon as he is able. No note will be demanded and interest will not be charged. He will be permitted to pay back on the installment plan."

MAN FOUND DEAD IN BED SET ON FIRE WITH A SHOTGUN

Gun Had Been Placed on Safe Near Bed, With the Muzzle Under the Covers.

Persons passing the home of Nicholas Hartman on St. Louis avenue, Wood River, Ill., at 7:20 a. m. today noticed smoke issuing from the windows. They broke in and found Hartman dead in bed. A shotgun had been placed upon a small safe beside his bed, with the muzzle under the bed coverings, and discharged, the contents entering the man's left side and setting fire to the bed clothing.

Hartman, who was 51 years old, lived with a daughter, Stella, who had gone to St. Louis to visit. He was formerly in the saloon business at Benton City. Later he conducted a soft drink establishment, but had turned that over to his son, Joseph, who lived next door.

CEMENT WORK TO STOP UNTIL MEN ACCEPT PAY CUT

Contractors Vote to Shut Down Today and Remain Inactive Pending 20 Pct. Reduction.

ABOUT 300 MEN TO BE AFFECTED

Controversy Dates From Last Month, When Employers Proposed Reduction and It Was Rejected.

The Cement Contractors' Association, composed of employing contractors on concrete work in the building trades, at a regular meeting yesterday voted to shut down all concrete work today and remain inactive until the cement finishers and building concrete laborers accept a 20 per cent reduction in the prevailing scale of wages.

It was said at the offices of the association that about 300 men now employed would be affected, thus adding to the great number of unemployed in the building trades, due to inactivity in the industry on account of high wages, high prices of building materials and reluctance of banks to finance building operations on a reasonable basis.

The action of the association in instituting the lockout, it was said, would not affect building laborers in general, of whom there are several thousand. In normal times about 2500 concrete finishers and 700 concrete laborers are employed.

The workmen last month were asked to accept a 20 per cent reduction in wages. The Cement Finishers' Union, Local No. 527, refused to accept the proposed reduction from the prevailing wage scale, which is $12.50 an hour for finishers and $13.75 an hour for foremen. The present wage scale of building laborers is 67 1/2 cents per hour, and of concrete laborers, 80 cents an hour.

R. W. Bruner, secretary of the association, reported the action of the meeting. He said that although the Cement Contractors' Association had, in a recent letter to the finishers' union, expressed a readiness to meet with representatives of the union to discuss the wage question, the letter was apparently ignored.

Fred Schultz, business agent of the Cement Finishers' Union, said the action of the employers constituted a lockout, and was in violation of an agreement with the union providing four months' notice by either party to the agreement of any proposed change in wages.

Commission Predicts Decrease in Pay of Common Labor

THE Public Service Commission in its order today authorizing the Laclede Gas Light Co. to increase its rates, said:

"In predicting future prices proper regard should be given to prevailing signs. We may reasonably expect that during 1921 there will be a gradual decrease in wages of common labor and in the prices of materials used for maintenance."

The company's estimate of its probable expenses in 1921 for labor, steam and maintenance was decreased from $874,182 to $839,182 by the commission, a reduction of $35,000 because of this view.

FIRM TO READJUST SALARY OF ALL OF 1200 ON PAYROLL

Simmons Hardware Co. Announces Reduction Will Go in Effect April 16.

George W. Simmons, vice president and general manager of the Simmons Hardware Co., employing 1200 persons, announced today that, beginning April 16, the salary of every employee of the company will be readjusted, starting with that of the president, whose salary will be reduced proportionately more than that of anyone else, and scaling down to those whose salaries will be reduced approximately 10 per cent.

In a circular letter to employees Simmons said that officers of the company had considered every other plan of reducing expenses to keep pace with a decrease in sales and profits before taking up the question of lowering salaries. He said that in the past 50 years salaries had increased in proportion to the profits and that earlier action in reducing wages had been deferred with the hope that conditions would improve. In the last few months, however, the firm has been operating at a loss, he said. He urged the employees to accept the situation as presented to them.

KIEL AND BYRNES EACH EXPECTS TO WIN BY 40,000

Mayor Says He Feels Sure of at Least That Large a Plurality—It May Be 50,000, Byrnes Asserts.

Mayor Kiel, Republican candidate for a third term, and James W. Byrnes, Democratic nominee on a non-partisan business platform, are in agreement as to the result of next Tuesday's election, so far as figures are concerned. Each said today that the next Mayor would be elected by a plurality of 40,000. The only difference in their predictions was that each asserted that he would be the one to get the 40,000 plurality.

"I feel sure of at least 40,000 plurality," the Mayor said. "The crowds and the enthusiasm at the many meetings I have attended, and especially the interest shown by the women, assure me of a decisive victory."

"My prediction is still that I will get 40,000 plurality," Byrnes said, "but I may find myself mistaken, for it may be 50,000. Mr. Kiel's 20,000 votes in the primary represent the machine and the negro vote. He has more of his strength. He may increase this to 30,000 Tuesday. I will get the independent vote, the Democratic vote and the votes of about 10,000 of those who supported Burkham in the Republican primary."

TARDY JUROR IS FINED $50 AND REPRIMANDED IN COURT

Failure to Appear on Time Caused Mistrial in Damage Suit.

F. J. Stoltz, 4257 McPherson avenue, whose tardiness while serving as a juror in Judge Taylor's court two weeks ago finally resulted in a mistrial being declared, was fined $50 for contempt and reprimanded in open court today.

The case was one in which a 9-year-old girl was suing for personal injury damages. After testimony had been taken for one day, Stoltz failed to appear at 10 a. m. the next day, when the trial was to be resumed. The case was postponed until 11 p. m. Stoltz came in shortly before noon and said he had been delayed by an automobile accident. He failed again to appear at 1 o'clock and a mistrial was declared.

He said today that he had misunderstood the hour, but admitted under Judge Taylor's questions that he had had a few drinks in celebrating him. Judge Taylor pointed out that his delinquency had caused the case to be laid over until the October term, thus depriving the youthful plaintiff of an adjudication of her rights immediately.

INCREASES FROM 23 TO 70 PER CENT AUTHORIZED BY STATE COMMISSION

Body Estimates That the New Schedule Will Increase the Revenue of the Company $1,938,303, of Which $1,856,750 Will Be From Gas Sales.

ORDERS MODIFICATION OF COAL CONTRACT

Decision Says Company Should Proceed at Once to Modify or to Abrogate Contract if That May Be Done.

By a Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, April 1.—The Public Service Commission today authorized the Laclede Gas Light Co. of St. Louis to increase its rates from 23 to 70 per cent on April 8 for 13 months, the smallest increase applying to small household consumers and the larger increases to quantity consumers.

The new schedule advances the rates from 55, 60 and 65 cents to $1.05, 95 and 85 cents the 1000 cubic feet. The application of the company was for authorization to charge $1.25, $1 and 90 cents.

The new rates, according to the commission, will yield the company a return of 7.74 per cent on a tentative valuation of $30,000,000.

The commission estimates that this new schedule will increase the revenue of the company $1,938,303, of which $1,856,750 will be from gas sales.

The decision of the commission was unanimous, and was accompanied by the following statement:

"The commission adheres to its former estimate of $30,000,000 as a tentative rate base valuation for the entire property of the gas company. The company submitted an inventory and appraisal showing an original reproduction value of $42,354,195.94."

It is estimated that the revenue of the company under the new rates will be sufficient to cover operating expenses, taxes, depreciation reserve and provide a net return of $2,324,974 for 12 months, or 7.74 per cent on a tentative valuation of $30,000,000.

In considering expense for 1921 the commission reduces the estimated operating expenses, as furnished by the company, by the sum of $432,326, representing the accountant's corrections and deductions made in compliance with the contentions of the city's representatives.

In reference to the coal contracts the commission holds as follows:

"The gas company has been criticized for entering into a two-year contract for coal at a time when price was approximately at a maximum. There is, however, no evidence of collusion or fraud in connection with the making of the contract and, in view of conditions existing at the time on the scarcity of coal, unusual demands and the difficulty of obtaining reliable contracts for the grade of coal required, the commission is not prepared to state that the officers of the company failed to exercise reasonable care and prudence in entering into the coal contracts and therefore holds that for the present, at least, such amounts as the company may be forced to pay under the contracts shall be charged as legitimate operating expenses."

"The contract for coal was subjected to criticism in that it is not provided that the price to be paid shall not be in excess of the market price at the time of delivery. The contract does provide for a reduction in price of coal when freight rates and the wages of coal miners shall be reduced. The company should proceed at once to procure a modification of said

Government Appeals for Volunteers to Man Pumps in Workings and Forbids the Exportation of Coal.

FEAR OF WALKOUT BY TRANSPORT MEN

Other Members of Triple Alliance, Fearing Loss of National Agreements, Call Meetings.

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, April 1.—All work ceased in the coal mines of the United Kingdom at midnight, with the exception of a very few districts, and approximately 1,200,000 miners were idle today as a result of the wage controversy.

Danger that the mines may be flooded threatens, and many may be irretrievably ruined. Strenuous efforts are being made everywhere to enroll volunteers.

The first effect of the strike has been the placing of orders with American coal merchants. Advice from New York state that a flood of orders from European countries, which normally have formed the British market, has been received there, and the price of household fuel already has risen 2 shillings.

Fear of sympathetic strikes. Apprehension is felt that the National Union of Railway Men and the Transport Workers' Union, partners with the miners in the labor

MO. U. GRADUATES BEGIN DRIVE FOR $100,000 HERE

Fund Is Part of $500,000 Needed to Build Memorial to War Victims at Columbia.

An effort to raise $100,000 among the 1000 St. Louis alumni and former students of Missouri University as a part of the $500,000 fund with which to erect a "union" building on the university campus at Columbia as a memorial to the 52 men of the university who gave their lives in the World War, was begun last night at a meeting in Soldan High School.

It was stated at the meeting that students at the university had pledged $233,000, payable over a three-year period. A motion picture, "In Tigertown," was shown. It depicted home-coming day at Columbia last year, culminating in a 17-6 football victory for Missouri over the ancient rival, Kansas. Capt. Herbert Bloomer of the 1921 football squad detailed plans for next season and other speakers told of the prospects of other athletic teams and pledged their support to the memorial building drive.

The building will consist of two wings connected by an arch, which will be surmounted with a tower. One wing will house women student activities and the other will house the campus activities of the men.

dispute, may be tempted to strike in sympathy. In such an event the nation would be confronted with a crisis of unprecedented gravity.

Orders were issued last night to employees of various Government departments to "stand by" to report for transport duty if necessary.

Railway men and transport workers issued statements to the effect that the attitude of the mine owners and of the Government was regarded by the railway men and transport workers as a prelude to a general attempt to reduce wages and to get back to the old days of district, instead of national, negotiations in labor disputes. The National Union of Railway Men has called a conference of delegates for April 6, at which it will be decided whether the railway men will support the miners. The transport workers also have decided to call a meeting of the executives of all the bodies affiliated with them for April 5 to take similar action. The triple alliance numbers almost 2,000,000 workers. It is pointed out that an identical situation, as regards the railroads, will be almost certain to come up again in August, when Government control of the railroads ceases. On this account, it is argued, the triple alliance may see fit at the present time to make the miners' case a test case.

The Government has prohibited the export of coal unless under license.

Pumpmen Also Called Out. The temper of the miners is indicated in their strike order, which includes the pumpmen and other workmen who are essential to keep the mines in working condition. This, however, it is declared, will be countered by the Government employing naval men to go into the pits, if necessary. The Government in 1919 employed naval men for the pumping of mines during the strike, but it is said that should the regular mine pumpmen now be called out scores of mines inevitably must be flooded as there are insufficient naval forces available for the work. In 1919 the workers held out for 16 weeks.

VOL. 1. No. 3.

St. Louis, Friday Evening, April 1, 1921.

Home Edition.

If You Want to Know

just what is going on that is of importance to Boys and Girls, you'll find it in the Junior Herald.

That is what it is for—to talk about things boys and girls like to hear about.

Of course it comes out in Friday evening's paper, but you can have it sent right to you through the mails if you'll sign and send in the little coupon up in the opposite corner.

Perhaps You Are Curious to Know —what those big paper rolls are that boys and girls, large and small, are carrying under their arms as they go into the school buildings. We can tell you. They are posters those boys and girls have made to urge everyone to Vote "Yes"

on the Special School Election Friday, April 8th

Every one of those boys and girls will tell you how very important it is that this special school tax increase be accomplished. They'll tell you how crowded the school buildings are now, how very hard it is to get along in portable buildings, how much they need extra books and supplies, how some of them are even now having to do with half-time sessions—and most astounding of all, they will tell you that if this increase is not voted, the present rate will be reduced 20%, making conditions even worse than at present.

When they put the matter directly up to any grown-up voting person, do you see how this person can refuse to vote "Yes?"

"A Sweet Surprise" for Boys and Girls

"A SWEET SURPRISE" that little boys and girls like better than anything else in the world is a box of Candy. And Saturday is the best time of all to get one. After going to school all week, surely all good children deserve a treat on Saturday.

Tell father that every Saturday we sell a big beautiful box, just full of all kinds of the best Candy, called "A Sweet Surprise." Our Candy man just loves children, and he planned a lovely box and filled it full of the best kind of Candy that just melts in your mouth. And then he sells them only on Saturday so all the mothers and fathers will take them home that night.

This Candy is the most wonderful kind of food. Pure sugar and nuts are very good for kiddies. And it is such fun to eat good Candy! Be sure to remind mother and dad of "A Sweet Surprise" for Saturday.

Those Sporty Looking Three-Quarter Socks for Boys

DON'T you worry if Dick Jones wouldn't tell you where his mother got those new three-quarter socks he's wearing. We'll not snitch on him, but we'll tell you that right down here in this store are some of the best looking ones you ever saw.

You can tell mother, too, that when boys play marbles as they have to in the Spring, that bare knees don't wear out nearly so quickly as stockings do.

These Socks cost 39c and 59c pair. (Main Floor.)

"I'll Say It's Time to Take 'Em Off!"

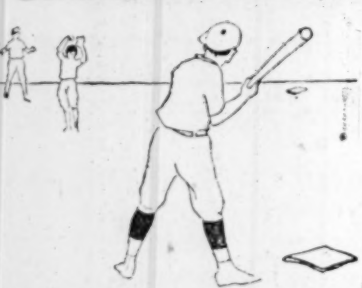

SURE does feel fine to get out of heavy old Underwear into smooth, slickery things of crossbar muslin.

They have a regular kind now, some with a knit strip around the waist, so they won't tear when you pitch a ball. There there are the rocking chair kind that butter down the side of the trunk. They cost

$1.25 (Main Floor.)

Hey Fellows! What'll we Play?

The Great American Game Is On

HAVE you seen the new Baseball Outfits in the Stix, Baer & Fuller Sporting Goods Department? You can't beat 'em! The bats and gloves and balls they sell for the little fellows are just as good as the ones they sell the professionals. An outfit with shirt, pants, belt and cap includes a real fielder's glove and a baseball, for $3.75. A bat by itself is a dollar. Be sure to tell the rest of the team that they can get the real stuff if they go to Stix, Baer & Fuller's.

(Fourth Floor.)

Tennis Gains in Popularity

TENNIS has proved such good fun that everyone expects to play this Spring. In athletic circles we hear that youngsters who can't quite manage a big racquet are buying the Junior size at Stix, Baer & Fuller's

98c (Fourth Floor.)

Bob Chester, a Regular Fellow

"I THINK Bob Chester is the best looking boy!" Billy's youngest sister stared dreamily into space. Billy sat up crossly and glared across the table. "Oh! girls make me sick about Bob Chester! What's so good looking about Bob? I don't think—"

"Billy, you know perfectly well you think Bob Chester is the best fellow in school. And he is good looking. He has such nice shoulders, and he never looks mussed like you do. Somehow, he looks more 'finished' than any of the other boys. I can't explain it exactly, but he—"

"Oh! the whole thing is that Bob wears Skolny or Perfection Suits and gets all his stuff from Stix, Baer & Fuller. Of course he never looks mussed. Those clothes stay right. If I dressed like that I'd be different!" and Billy looked injured and glanced at his dad, who had been listening all the time.

"Well, Bill," it was the dad who was speaking thoughtfully. "You'd better come downtown Saturday and let us see about getting you into the Bob Chester class. Meet me on the Fourth Floor and we'll look at the $24.50 sale they're having Saturday."

Billy grinned. It was a victory for him.

All Golf Champions Learned Game Early

IT is a well-known fact among golfers that the boy who learns the great Scotch game early in life becomes the man who wins all the cups. And one thing you may not think about, but it counts like everything—the best kind of fellows are the ones who play golf.

Golf has it all over other games in one way. You don't need to get a whole gang together before you can play. All you need is another fellow—and if he don't show up you can have a whole of a good time playing around the course trying to beat your last score.

The youngster who wants to be a regular fellow and likes men with real muscle and pep, will be mighty glad to find out he can buy a set of sticks and a Scotch plaid bag that are just as well made as his dad's. The sticks are shorter in the handle and a bit lighter. You get a driver, midiron and putter and the bag for $8.75. Lots of the best players in St. Louis just use three clubs. Anyway, that's enough to learn on. Just $8.75.

Cowboys and Indians Bust Broncos at Circus Given by Boys

Indian Chief and Cowboy Outfits Come From Stix, Baer & Fuller Sporting Goods Section

Circus Seats Cost 5 Pins, But They're Worth It

THE wild west show in Mr. Wm. Taylor's garage last Saturday afternoon was a regular thriller. Two cowboys and three Indian chiefs in real wild west clothes did a bronco-busting stunt that caused much excitement. In fact, even the steeds got excited and barked many times, and one stood up on his hind legs and said he was tired at the end of the contest.

The fine Indian and Cowboy Outfits worn at this show made all the boys who attended want to visit the Stix, Baer & Fuller store where they sell the best kind for

$3.45 (Fourth Floor.)

It Takes Real Skates to Put on Real Stunts

BALL-BEARING Skates built for speed, are favorites with boys and girls for Spring. The steel Skates most used have rubber cushions and are adjustable to shoe size. The best kind are priced $3.45

Lady Jane's Answers to Children's Questions

Master Bobby Bluffo, 11 Tired Street.

My Dear Master Bobby: I feel sure that tired feeling that keeps a little boy from wanting to go to kindergarten is due to lack of exercise. Perhaps if you speak to mother about your lazy feet and hands that just won't work or play, she will buy you a Velocipede. You will love the racing up and down the sidewalk and I am sure you won't be sleepy all the time. In fact, if mother says you can't ride your new steed until you have been to kindergarten, I know you will hurry off in the morning. The best ones I have seen are in the Toy Department. The price is $16.50

Miss Peggy Peck, 35 Pout Street.

My Dear Little Peggy: It is a shame, I agree, for the boys to keep you out of their games because you are a girl. Let me what you say about being able to skin the cat, and I am sure you are a lot of fun to play with if they only knew it.

But girls can have just as good times as boys. Why don't you ask mother to buy you a Roller Coaster? You can set it up in the back yard and have the most wonderful time. First you climb to the top of the little track that is 'way up in the air. Then you sit down in the little car and it scoots down the tracks so fast that you just hold your breath. This is the best outdoor toy and you can get one for Lady Jane will gladly answer any question addressed her in care of The Junior Herald.

Wish I Had One!

OF course you do—every girl from the time she takes off her baby cap until she gets big enough to put on a chenille dotted veil—loves a soft Milan Braid Hat with broad ribbon streamers!

Just you, then, come into our store to the section where we show girls' Hats alone, and you'll find ever and ever so many of that kind of Hat. There'll be almost any color you could want, and lots of different shapes. They'll cost $2, $2 or $2, according to the kind you pick out.

A Shiny Nose Never Happens to the Girl Who Owns One of These Vanity Cases.

THE wee powder puff, so necessary to the well-groomed look, must be tucked into a fascinating Vanity Case. The delicate trinkets are a real asset to the costume, and add the feminine touch that is ever charming. Prices $1.00 upwards. (Main Floor.)

The Game of "Shoes" Favorite With Society Good-Looking Footwear Always Wins

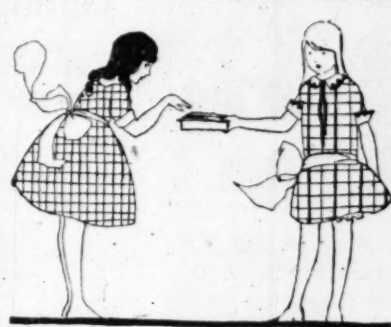

A LOVELY party was given last Wednesday afternoon by little Miss Clarice Camp. The favorite game of the afternoon was called "Shoes."

Several guests were taken out of the room by the young hostess. Then in a few minutes two feet appeared below a curtain hung across the door. The game was to guess whose feet they were, by seeing only the Shoes.

All the guests could tell Miss Marjorie Muffett's pretty feet by the white canvas Oxfords with Goodyear welled soles, she bought at the Stix, Baer & Fuller store for $3.50.

Many compliments were paid, the "Like Dad's" Oxfords that all the boys wore. All were surprised to find out that in spite of the excellent quality and style, they cost only $5.50 to $7.50, according to size.

All the boys confessed that, like the girls they could get the Shoes; they really liked only at the Children's Shoe Department in our store.

Girls Want Gingham Dresses and Here They Are

THERE is no end to the lovely Dresses one can have made of gingham. Dress up clothes! Yes, really. Of course it is when it is pink and white checked with an overdress of white organdie, pink hem-stitched and dotted with gingham roses. Can't you just see yourself wearing it! It may be bought for

Of course, you might like a blue and white checked one better, that has white organdie trimming with bias bands of the gingham on it. It costs $15. There are lots more here, too, ones that you'll like for play and for school.

(Girls' Store—Third Floor.)

Pongee and Brown Organdie—It's a Darling!

YOU know that nice soft tan color of pongee, and you know how perfectly brown goes with it. Then shut your eyes and see this lovely Dress of the two together.

The picture will show you how the organdie makes a vest, collar, cuffs and pockets and the pongee makes the buttons that dot it here and there. You'll like to wear it this Spring, and then how very grand it will be to wear when you go away this Summer. It costs

$18.50 (Girls' Store—Third Floor.)

Do You Know About the New Wrappy Coats?

THEY are big and loose with deep arm-holes and wide, crushing collars, and those nice, soft materials you see in grown-ups' clothes are used to make them.

There's really nothing like them to give one that dressed-up feeling. Here is a lovely tan one for $35

(Girls' Store—Third Floor.)

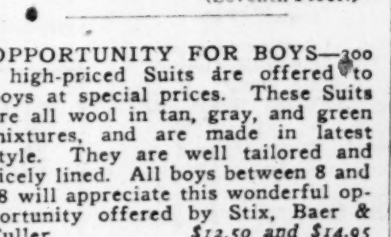

When Babies Sleep They Love to Cuddle in Ivory Enamel Cribs

"S-S-H—don't you dare tell—"

It's a secret, but I know a boy seven years old who still climbs into his enameled crib to sleep. He likes the bounciness of the springs, the softness of the felt mattress and the slick shininess of the enameled posts.

These Cribs are here in size 2 6x4 5 in blue enamel, old ivory, or walnut, with side drop and link springs. Just now they are specially priced $10.50

The Mattress Pad to fit is also specially priced at $4.25

(Seventh Floor.)

FOUND—Caps in all sizes, which may be purchased for $1.48 to $3.00 Boys' Cloth Hats in many weaves, to be bought for $1.95 to $4.95 Children's Cloth and Straw Hats 98c to $7.95 at Leather Tams in black and tan, offered at $4.50 (Fourth Floor.)

The Junior's Older Sister Chooses the Sport Type of Apparel

The Misses' Store Features Simple Costumes of Decided Smartness

Sport Hats Are Most Becoming to the Mid-Teens

IN the Spring the "peppy" girl wants a new, fresh outfit that she can wear to work, or to play, or to do nothing at all. But she demands that each Frock and Suit be just as charming and becoming as the ones the out-of-school girls are buying. And really, these days, the makers of lovely clothes consider the young girl a very important responsibility, and each day they are sending us new things designed just for her.

Tweed Suits and Jersey Frocks Favored

THERE is something very aristocratic about a young girl in a tweed suit. Tweeds achieve smartness without the least possibility of overdoing the thing. Taste of the best kind is satisfied with this type of good dressing. These suits are always well kept for there is nothing about them to muss, and always becoming with their trim, straight lines and their buttoned pockets. The pleats in the back of the coat give it a finish. Tweeds are as appropriate for a hike in the woods as for a trip downtown. She can get such a Suit for $29.50 or $35.

A Sports Frock of fine thin jersey comes this week for the teenage girl. It is a cunning two-piece affair with slit pockets and smart linen collar and cuffs. The skirt is side pleated all around. The slip-over blouse has a belt that ties. The loveliest shades are rose, French blue, henna, brown and navy. Sizes 14 to 20 years. Price, $18.75 (Third Floor.)

Taffeta and Canton Crepe Hold Their Own for Spring Frocks

BUT when the little lady of good taste wishes to wear the smart frock that has no hint of sport in its style, then she chooses a taffeta or Canton crepe, made in youthful lines that turn the older women green with envy these days.

A brocade blue taffeta has quaint flutings around the edge of tunic, sleeve and throat, and even in whirly designs on the surface of the tunic. This adorable little creation reminds one of our grandmother and yet it realizes the style of Spring, 1921.

Rat-tail braid is again in high favor, and on a brown Canton crepe it combines with henna embroidery to finish one of the most attractive Frocks of the season. A dash of henna silk is the final touch of youthful smartness.

These Frocks just mentioned are but two from the many models in the misses' store. All the others are well worth your inspection. The prices are $25, $35 and $45 (Third Floor.)

Sports Hats of Milan Hemp

THE crushable crowns of these Milan Hemp Hats give them charming variety of line. The Hat that is pulled carelessly down on the head, as these Hats are meant to be, has a grace and becomingness that is never found in the stiff type which, for this season, has been banished by La Mode.

The brims of these models turn off the face, or they compromise between "floppiness" and the straightline edge. The trimming is usually a fine quality of ribbon that finishes the crown. The colors are those most desirable for wear in the season of warm sunshine—navy, soft browns and the black that never fails to add chic to every outfit. The prices are $10.00 to $15.00 (Third Floor.)

VIRGINIA GROCERY COMPANY IS CALLED TRUST BY GOVERNMENT

Austin, Nichols & Co. Accused of Abusing Competitors in Restraint of Trade.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, April 1.—Austin, Nichols & Co., a Virginia corporation engaged in the wholesale grocery business, with headquarters at Richmond, has been cited by the Federal Trade Commission under the Clayton act to answer complaints of illegal acquisition and consolidation of competing businesses.

In 1919, the complaint sets forth, Austin, Nichols & Co., Inc., a New York corporation with headquarters in New York City, was one of the largest wholesale grocery concerns in the United States. At the same time Wilson & Co., Chicago packers, controlled the Fame Packing Co., operating eight vegetable canning plants in Indiana, Michigan and Wisconsin; the Wilson Fisheries Co., operating five fish canning plants in Washington and Alaska, and a vegetable canning plant at Whitehead, Ind.

Anticipating the decree in the government suit enjoining packers from engaging in unrelated lines of business, the complaint further avers Wilson & Co. entered into an agreement with stockholders of the Austin, Nichols & Co. and of the Fame Packing Co. under its own control for a consolidation through a new corporation of the Virginia corporation now cited.

CONTEMPT ACTION AGAINST NEW YORK WORLD MEN ENDS

Judge Who Caused Prosecution Suspends Sentence on Two Men He Adjudged Guilty.

NEW YORK, April 1.—The contempt of court proceedings instituted by Supreme Justice McAvoy against four members of the New York World staff, and by Justice McAvoy's direction prosecuted by William A. De Ford, concluded yesterday when Justice McAvoy suspended sentence on Robert O. Scallan and William P. Beasell, the two men he adjudged guilty Tuesday.

The contempt proceedings were based on an article printed in the World on Feb. 26, which had been written by Scallan in part from information brought to the World by Beasell. Both men repeated disclaimers of any intention of reflecting on the court and regret at the publication of the article.

"The court had in mind at the outset of the proceedings and throughout the proceedings, that the offense here was one which merited a sentence to the county prison and was not to be placated by a fine," said the Justice. "This determination, I am quite sure, was somewhat indicated throughout the proceedings, and I have no doubt was fomented by the court's personal indignation because of the attack upon the individual occupying the place."

"The object of the law, however, is not to vindicate any individual Judge, but is to cause and compel respect for the administration of the law without even the necessity for formal trial. The court may summarily call to the bar any person who publishes a false or even an inaccurate account of a proceeding which is pending in court, or which has been concluded in court, and punish, without any reference to any other person or any other Judge, the act charged."

"But I do think, in view of the statements of both of the persons who are ultimately responsible, that the majesty of the court, the Supreme Court of the State, is entirely vindicated. I have no wish to add my personal indignation to the affront to the court in the imposition of any sentence. I therefore suspend sentence in both cases."

E. A. Daley President of I. C. S. A. SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 31.—E. A. Daley of Belleville was elected president of the Illinois Commercial Secretaries' Association at the concluding session of the annual convention here yesterday. Many of the secretaries remained in Springfield for the meeting of the Illinois Chamber of Commerce.

EAST ST. LOUIS CAR MEN AND EMPLOYERS TO CONFER ON WAGES

Notice of Desire for Discussion Served by Company and by Union Officials.

Officers of the East St. Louis Railway Co., which operates the city trolley lines in East St. Louis, today notified officers of the street railway men's union that it desired to open negotiations on wages and hours. At the same time a similar notice was served on the company by officers of the union, and it is expected conferences will be held next week.

The men are receiving 70 cents an hour under a two-year agreement which still has a year to run from May 1 next. A union officer today said no demands had been made on the company as to a wage increase, but the men desired that certain working conditions be improved. Officials of the company declined to say why they had asked for a conference.

Everybody receives the same merchandise—the same price—the same courtesy at PIGGLY WIGGLY.

The rich and poor, the old and young, the woman and man, receive at PIGGLY WIGGLY the best service—wait-on-yourself service.

Fine clothes and haughty manners have no advantage over old clothes and good manners at PIGGLY WIGGLY—yet these, too, are welcome.

The neighborhood gossip, the self-appointed funny man or the fault-finding individual do not like PIGGLY WIGGLY. A can of tomatoes or a carton of butter won't repeat gossip and that is what the retailer of gossip wants; a jar of preserves or a box of sardines won't appreciate the aged and infirm jokes of the would-be funny man; telling your imaginary troubles to a bag of flour or a loaf of bread won't get you any talk sympathy.

PIGGLY WIGGLY has put the kibosh on hot air and heel cooling.

A package of sugar or some hand-picked fruit is not set aside for some favored customer at PIGGLY WIGGLY. You pick out the particular brands you want without suggestion or persuasion from anyone, without risking a curt word by refusing to take "something just as good." If you want all big apples or all small oranges you may have them. No clerk to fume, frown or fuss about it.

At the checker's desk your purchases are footed up on an Adding Machine made especially for PIGGLY WIGGLY; you are handed the Adding Machine slip; your packages are placed in a paper sack; your change is handed you from the Cash Register and you are on your way rejoicing. MAN ATTACKED BY YOUTH SUNDAY DIES

George Owens, 65, Succumbs to Fractured Skull—No Clew to His Assailant.

George Owens, 65 years old, of 1307A Chouteau avenue, a dishwasher, died at 6:35 a. m. today at the city hospital from a fractured skull, concussion of the brain and other injuries which he received at 4:30 a. m. last Sunday, when he was beaten by an unidentified young man.

Owens, who was employed in the restaurant owned by Mrs. Mary Ross at 1207 Chouteau avenue, had been unconscious since the time of the assault and was therefore unable to furnish the police with any clew to his assailant. The attack occurred directly in front of the restaurant where he was employed.

Raymond Leisner, of 1219 Chouteau avenue, a newsboy, told the police that he was going east on Chouteau avenue at about 4:30 a. m. when he saw a man lying on the sidewalk. A City Hospital ambulance driven by Joseph Martin was passing at the time. He called to the driver, who stopped. Together they lifted the man into the ambulance.

Daniel O'Brien and Benjamin Brooks, both of whom were working in the restaurant with Owens at the time, told the police that at 4 a. m. Owens stopped outside to "get some fresh air." A few moments later they said they heard him screaming for help. They saw a young man, without a coat or hat, beating Owens with some sort of a weapon.

They rushed to Owens' assistance and the man fled to Twelfth street, where he turned south and disappeared. They described the man as about 5 feet 9 inches tall, weighing about 175 pounds.

They said that they never had heard Owens mention any quarrel or any personal trouble and were unable to account for the attack. William Oliver of 1209 Chouteau avenue said that he was awakened by Owens' screams for help. He said he looked out of the window and saw a young man beating him over the head with some sort of weapon.

Owens until recently had been a driver for the Columbia Transfer Co.

Woman Reports Loss of $1000 Ring.
Mrs. Violet Leavitt, a guest at the Satter Hotel, reported to detectives last night the loss of a diamond ring valued at $1000, taken while she was washing her hands in a department store. She said she laid the ring on the wash bowl while she was drying her hands, and when she returned to get it, found it was gone.

EDWARDSVILLE WOMEN'S LEAGUE VOTES TO SELL CHAPTER HOUSE

Building Was First Chapter House of Movement Founded by E. G. Lewis.

The American Women's League at Edwarsville voted yesterday to sell its chapter house and divide the proceeds. The American Women's League, which was to be national in scope, was organized by E. G. Lewis, formerly of University City. The first chapter house was built at Edwarsville in 1909. It was a handsome structure, well finished and attractively fitted up for social purposes.

The building has been popular as a social center, being also leased by the Christian Science Church of Edwarsville as a meeting place. But the original membership has, through deaths and removals, dwindled to 23 and the women at the annual session yesterday voted to sell the property and disband.

BOAT MAY CEASE OPERATION
Owners of the William Heckman, a steamboat which was put in service several weeks ago on the Missouri River between Jefferson City and St. Louis, have announced that they will suspend the service with the next trip unless more freight is offered.

The freight charge on the packet is 20 per cent lower than the railroad charge. Those who have used the line declare that it has delivered freight as quickly between the two cities as the railroads. Jefferson City merchants are endeavoring to assemble a guaranteed tonnage sufficient to continue the service.

plication of Diseases.

on March 6, when he acted as an Marching in the rain during the tated his illness. He came from Greensburg, Ind., in the fall of 1919, to become pastor of the church here.

He was born in Troy, O. He is survived by his wife and three daughters, Mercia, Ruth and Marjorie.

ALKALI IN SHAMPOOS BAD FOR WASHING HAIR

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.
The best thing to use is Mulisid cocoanut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get Mulisid at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.
Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff. Be sure your druggist gives you Mulisid.

U. S. DRY AGENT TELLS OF CHIEF PROBLEM OF ENFORCEMENT

Mentions Hostile Public Sentiment, Lack of Co-Operation by States, Border Bootlegging and Too Many Permits.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, April 1.—Difficulties in enforcing national prohibition include hostile public sentiment, lack of co-operation by the states, bootlegging on the borders and issuance of too many dealers' permits, according to John F. Kramer, Federal Prohibition Commissioner.

What he termed as his "honest view" on prohibition are given by Kramer in a letter to Senator Capper of Kansas. Commenting on charges that liquor was being sold openly by 33 New York saloons, Kramer detailed the problems of the "dry" of-ficers and also suggested remedies.

"In view of all these conditions and circumstances," said Kramer, "I believe we have made remarkable progress during the year or more in which the national prohibition act has been in existence. We still have much work to do and will have for years to come. You can't turn the current of history overnight. Anything that has fastened itself upon political, economic and personal history of our country as has the liquor traffic, cannot be removed in a day or a year."

Summing up, Kramer said he believed failures of enforcement during the past year were "due to the administration of the law more than they were to the law itself. In this respect," he said, "I am willing to assume my share of responsibility for these errors. In the beginning we issued entirely too many permits. Secondly, we made a mistake in placing the standard of medicinal preparations on too low a basis. We have had trouble in selecting a force of agents who were at all times loyal. This does not apply to many, but to some."

INVESTIGATION INTO ELWELL MURDER FORMALLY REOPENED

District Attorney Swann of New York Turns Over Documents in Case to Former Gov. Whitman.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. NEW YORK, April 1.—Investigation into the death of Joseph B. Elwell, turfman and bridge expert, who was found in his home, 244 West Seventieth street, with a bullet hole through his forehead, on the morning of June 11, 1920, was formally "reopened" yesterday, when District Attorney Swann turned over all information and documents in connection with the case to former Gov. Whitman, head of the inquiry into charges of corruption in the city administration. Asked why he had turned the case over to Whitman, Swann said it was "to satisfy the public." The District Attorney is doing everything possible to solve the mystery. Assistant District Attorney Smith will be Whitman's chief aid in this inquiry.

Mrs. Joseph S. Elwell, Elwell's mother, and her daughter, Grace, denied yesterday a statement that they knew who the murderer was. Miss Elwell said they "had their suspicions only." Miss Elwell is sure the murderer is a man and "of such power that the expenditure of many dollars in an effort to bring about his arrest and conviction, would, in her opinion, be without result."

BAN ON FALSE ADVERTISING

Texas Has Law Against Public Misrepresentations.

By the Associated Press. AUSTIN, Tex., April 1.—True advertising is now the law in Texas. If a person should find the assertion or representation in an advertisement untrue, false, misleading or deceptive, he now has recourse through the law.

The measure was introduced in the Legislature by Senator Hertzberg of Bexar and was sponsored by the advertising clubs of Texas. When Gov. Neff signed it on March 21 it became a law. The Governor signed the bill with three pens, using each one to affix part of his name.

The bill merely provides that any person, corporation or other establishment advertising merchandise, securities, service or any commodity in which an increase in distribution is the object of such advertisement, must not misrepresent or mislead the public in the advertisement. The law applies to all classes of advertising from newspapers to street car signs. For any misrepresentation, false assertion or deception of the public in such advertisements the advertiser shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and be fined not less than $10 and not more than $200 for each offense.

"Ponzi of the West" Returned.

By the Associated Press. HOBOKEN, N. J., April 1.—Emil Forsberg, a delicatessen store clerk, 27 years old, who is wanted in Oakland, Cal., where he is said to be known as "The Ponzi of the West," was returned from Denmark yesterday in custody of an Oakland police inspector.

Hawaii Asks for Real Beer.

HONOLULU, P. H., April 1.—A resolution petitioning Congress to sanction the manufacture and sale in Hawaii of beer containing 4.8 per cent, and wine containing 15 of alcohol was introduced in the Territorial House yesterday by Representative Evan De Silva of Hilo. The resolution said that the people of Hawaii had had no opportunity to express their convictions on prohibition, and that drunkenness has increased in the territory since prohibition became operative.

Sentenced on Girls' Charges.

By the Associated Press. TOLEDO, April 1.—Found guilty by a jury two weeks ago of a serious charge involving several girls, David A. Barnett, a Toledo business man, was sentenced yesterday to serve from one to 20 years in the penitentiary at Columbus. Barnett's bond was increased to $15,000 pending hearing on an appeal.

EXHIBIT OF HOSPITAL PATIENTS' WORK HELD
Baskets, Reed Table Lamp, Towels and Other Articles Shown at Therapy Exposition.

Interest in the exposition of the Missouri Association of Occupational Therapy Wednesday and yesterday at the city hospital school and work shop centered not so much in the numerous exhibits of work by the seven students in the crafts, from headwork to bookbinding, and from basketry to clay modeling, as in the work of some of the hospital patients.

A large and pretty fruit basket, a reed table lamp and other basketry so well done as to rival the Indian basketwork displayed last year at the Industrial Arts and Crafts Exposition are the work of Edward O'Malley, 24 years old, who was taken to the hospital March 12, 1914, suffering from a stab wound in the back.

Other baskets displayed were made by Peter Banks, 43 years old, who has been confined to his bed since April 11, 1914, when he fell from a train on which he was "beat-ing" his way from Memphis to St. Louis and broke his back. His wife and three children live at 1519 Singleton street. His oldest daughter will be graduated from high school this spring. He was a bricklayer previous to the accident.

Paralyzed Before Operations.
Banks was paralyzed until several operations had been performed. Nurses and attendants in his ward said that they were unable to interest him in anything until occupational therapy was taken up in January, 1920. Miss Wilson persuaded him to do some beadwork and soon afterward he began making baskets. He of course does the work in bed, with the materials on a table beside him. His face, lighted by an almost perpetual smile, and he is continually tossing pleasanties at the patients about him. "When I started this I could hardly move my hands," he said. "I may walk yet—you never can tell."

Another maker of baskets is William McGrath, 54 years old, who lost the use of his legs 17 years ago and was taken to the city hospital last August from Mullanphy Hospital. He is able to sit up in a wheel chair, and reads a great deal, but says that even reading grows tiresome.

Towels woven in difficult colored designs were made on a small bedside loom by George Jones, who has undergone six operations since he was taken to the hospital last July. He is the son of Judson Jones of 4253 Meramec street. Inflammation following an attack of influenza was so severe that his heart was affected. Other baskets were made by Henry Leschlar, 38 years old, who has been in the hospital for over a year, suffering from a fractured leg which refuses to knit, the result of an autoist knocking him from the sidewalk. An ornate woman's belt made of intricately knotted cord was the exhibit of Charles Johnson, 27 years old, who has been kept in the hospital for 14 months by a rheumatic condition of the legs. A number of wooden toys were cut out and painted by two young boys, who are paralyzed. All of them said that only the work made their long stay in the hospital bearable.

Scroll Driven by Pedal.
One of the exhibits was foot-driven scroll saw with an attachment to the right pedal to regulate the amount of motion of the foot. It is used by a woman who suffered from a stiff knee. When she started using the saw a few months ago the pedal was arranged so that the foot did not move at all, but the pitch has been lengthened so much to do as the left. Miss Wilson said that similar methods of loosening stiff joints were extensively used in army camps, where she was employed previous to coming here.

About 40 patients at one time are in the care of Miss Wilson and her two assistants, but as many of them are convalescents, she has about 100 a month. The seven students of the school, who were graduated this week from a six months' course, will take a three months' practice course teaching patients in the city and Koch hospitals and in the city sanitarium. A number of lectures on art, hospital treatment and other subjects touching the work were given during the course by prominent local professional men and women. The next term will begin Sept. 22.

NEGRO HELD ON GIRL'S CHARGE

Eleanor Smith, 16, Says She Was Lured to Hotel by Youth.
Eleanor Smith, 16 years old, who says she is the daughter of Chauncey Smith of 3347 Cullen avenue, Chicago, is being held in care of the matron at police headquarters while detectives investigate a story she told of having been lured to a hotel in Market street by a youth who offered to act as her guide to the Y. W. C. A. when she met him upon her arrival at Union Station here Feb. 17.

In following the statements of the girl the detectives arrested a negro porter of another Market street hotel, who, the girl declared, introduced her to a number of white men at the hotel. The girl said she came here looking for work.

GOLDSTEIN'S CLERKS

TAXED TO AID KIEL

Five Per Cent of Salaries of Circuit Clerk's Employees Net $350 for Mayor.

"Voluntary" contributions, at the uniform rate of 5 per cent of five month's pay, have been made to the Kiel third-term campaign fund by the employees of the office of Circuit Clerk Nat Goldstein, leader of the courthouse ring.

A. B. Bowen, secretary to the Circuit Clerk, said to a Post-Dispatch reporter today that he had circulated a paper among the force of deputies and clerks, on which each man's name appeared, with a subscription equivalent to 5 per cent of a month's salary, and that every man had signed it. He said the amount subscribed was about $350. No coercion was used, he said, and he did not recall any complaints or objections. "If the employees don't subscribe, who would?" he remarked.

Goldstein, when asked about the matter, said he had not known that the list was being circulated, but that he approved of the action. Bowen has circulated similar lists in past campaigns.

The city charter forbids the soliciting of political contributions, directly or indirectly, from city employees in the municipal classified service. This applies to most of the city hall employees, but not to those in the Circuit Clerk's office, which is considered a State office.

Employees in the classified office are making "voluntary" contributions, as has been told by Treasurer Hohmann of the Republican City Committee. These contributions do not come from all departments in the same way. In some departments, special contributions, on a more or less accurate percentage basis, have been made especially for the campaign. In others, funds collected through the past year, or since the last election, are being turned into the party treasury.

Some city offices have regular "chests" to which each employee contributes every month, ostensibly to provide wedding gifts and flowers for funerals, and which are used in parts for those purposes; but their chief purpose is political, and it is the business of the office employee in charge of each fund to have a satisfactory amount on hand for the party at campaign time.

In the case of many employees, there is no doubt that the contributions are in fact voluntary. Many city employees are genuinely anxious to bring about Mayor Kiel's reelection, to insure their own tenure of their jobs for four years more, and they take the necessity of campaign contributions as a matter of course. Others, who realize that in private employment they would not be subject to such exactions, are inclined to grumble, but they usually give.

DEPUTY SHERIFF DISMISSED

East St. Louis Officer Makes Change in Staff.

Deputy Sheriff Rufus O. Shepherd of East St. Louis, formerly Chief of Police of that city, was today dismissed from service by Sheriff Petri, who appointed Bert Farrell, formerly an employee of the Aluminum Ore Co., to succeed Shepherd. Farrell has been active in Republican party affairs for several years. He has been a deputy Circuit Clerk, and has held other political positions. His principal duties will be to serve as bailiff in the City Court. Shepherd had been a Deputy Sheriff six years.

BUYERS' STRIKE STILL ON, SAYS

FEDERAL RESERVE REVIEW

Business Said to Show Little Indication of Getting Away From Uncertainties of Last Year.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, April 1.—Business showed little indication this month of getting away from the uncertainties of the last year, according to the monthly review of conditions made public by the Federal Reserve Board. Increased activity were noted in some trade, but with these exceptions, commerce apparently was awaiting further developments before moving toward anything like normal conditions. Federal reserve agents reported.

Regarding trades showing a healthier side, including automobiles, textiles and footwear, the board hesitated in saying they had experienced more than temporary advances due to the spring season. Without exception, the board's observers reported that the buyers' strike, felt first last summer, still showed an almost solid front. The only optimistic expression was in connection with the employment situation, which, the review said, reflected slightly improved conditions during the last 30 days, attributed to the increased seasonal activity in the three lines.

Reductions in wholesale prices continued during March. In retail stores the drop has not been as rapid as in wholesale trade, but reports indicate the retail decline has been steady. A gloomy picture of the shipping situation was presented. It showed more than 30 per cent of the Government-owned tonnage tied up March 14 for lack of remunerative cargo.

Wellesley College Instructor Arrives.

McDougall, associate of the Royal College of Organists of London, and head of the department of music at Wellesley College, arrived today to deliver a series of talks at Mary Institute, Hosmer Hall and Soldan and McKinley high schools. Fined $25 for Shooting Robins

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, April 1.—The inability of Pasquale Verri to differentiate between a blackbird and a robin cost him $25 in Federal Judge Landis court yesterday. Verri was charged with having shot a robin, violating the migratory bird act. He told Judge Landis the weather had been foggy and he thought he was shooting a blackbird. A recurrence of the misdemeanor, Judge Landis said, would result in a six-months' jail sentence.

RAIL EMPLOYEES ASK HARDING TO CALL CONFERENCE

Message Sent to President Proposes Parley to "Undertake to Compose Differences of All Points."

NOTE SIGNED BY A. F. L. OFFICER

Recalls Harding's Statement
He "Had Rather Submit Industrial Controversies to Conference Table."

By the Associated Press
CHICAGO, April 1.—Railroad employees have laid a proposal before President Harding for a conference between labor and the railroads in an attempt to settle the whole transportation problem now confronting the country so far as labor is concerned.

In a telegram signed by B. M. Jewell, president of the railway employees' department of the American Federation of Labor, the chief executive is asked to call a conference between the railway executives and the labor unions "to undertake to compose the differences on all points in dispute." Jewell declared the union had "every faith" that such a conference would be "productive of immediate salutary results."

The telegram was sent last night to ask a voice in the solution of the railroad problem, which was considered at a conference in Washington yesterday between the President and R. M. Barton, chairman of the United States Railroad Labor Board, and E. E. Clark, chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission. Referring to the President's inaugural declaration that he preferred the settlement of industrial controversies at the conference table, the employees expressed willingness to hold such a conference immediately, and declared that "under the present abnormal conditions" they considered it essential in the interests of all concerned.

Message to President.
The text of the message follows: "Two million railroad workers and their millions of dependents are vitally interested in your efforts to effect solution of the railroad problem. Obviously no policy or program that is unacceptable to them will be productive of the much-desired result of co-operation, and accordingly, therefore, we urge respectfully that we be given a voice in the determination of what is to be done."
"The first essential to peace and orderly progress in the transportation industry is a speedy settlement of the controversy between the carriers and the railway employees over national agreements and wages, and it is our belief that you can bring this about by the application of the principle laid down by you in your inaugural address when you said: 'I had rather submit our industrial controversies to the conference table in advance of the settlement of the matter after conflict and suffering.'"

Conference Proposed.
"Accordingly we urge that you use your executive influence to bring about a conference between the railway executives, as they are organized nationally, and the railroad employees, as they are organized nationally, to undertake to compose the differences on all points in dispute. Such a conference is contemplated by the transportation act and is in keeping with the spirit of the times. We have every faith that it will be productive of immediate salutary results. The employees will welcome it and co-operate with you in every way to make it a complete success."
"We have constantly urged this method of procedure as the best means of avoiding the necessary delays and expense incident to the submission of matters in dispute to judicial determination by the Railroad Labor Board. We prefer at all times to adjust points of differences through mutual agreements with the railroad executives. Because of the present abnormal conditions we consider it essential in the interests of all concerned to conserve time and effort by reaching an agreement through a joint conference."

Charges of Intimidation.
Several hundred affidavits presented by J. C. Smock, vice president of the Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way and Railroad Shop Laborers, declared that the signers had been compelled to sign agreements and contracts to work at lower wages or longer hours under threat of losing their jobs. Smock read several letters from employers who stated that they signed under compulsion and the remainder were filed with the board.
W. A. Webb, of Tyler, Tex., general manager for the road, immediately filed other affidavits which, he said, would say that the employees "would go to the penitentiary for violation of the transportation act if they didn't sign."

Complaint by Employees.
The dispute, which affects about 200 men, was brought before the board on allegations of the employees that the railroad had violated the board's decision by changing classifications of employees and by re-employing discharged men under individual contracts at lower wages.

Reductions in forces were made necessary by business depression, and he recited the details of the road's action in abolishing certain positions.

day when the delegates, named to present the case of the 35,000 maintenance of way and structures and unskilled forces, refused to accept a wage reduction ranging from 15 to 25 per cent.

The committee of general managers of the road, in charge of the conference, suggested that the workers in question accept the cut. Representatives of the men held a conference and decided, on behalf of the employees, to reject the proposed reduction. This refusal automatically threw the case into the hands of the United States Railroad Labor Board.

Jacob Goldman, appointed receiver for the Motor Express Co., whose stock Barry sold, said that checks for investment in the company are still coming in.

WARRANT CHARGING ASSAULT

ISSUED AGAINST CHARLES DEVOY

Based on Charge of Assault on Wife of Attorney When He Visited Home Last Sunday.

A warrant charging assault to kill was issued today against Charles Devoyn, growing out of an assault alleged to have been committed by him Sunday on Mrs. Mary A. Leahy, wife of John P. Leahy, an attorney, 5851 Cates avenue, at Devoyn's home, 5837 Cates avenue.

Mrs. Leahy accompanied to the Devoyn home Alice Heinrichs, niece of Devoyn, to obtain clothing which the child left there when she and her aunt, Mrs. Mary E. Cartwright, left the house last week and went temporarily to the Leahy home.

Leahy is attorney for Mrs. Cartwright, to whom was willed the bulk of the estate of Mrs. Edward Devoyn. Suit has been brought by Charles and other sons to break the will.

Mrs. Leahy told Assistant Circuit Attorney Schwartz that after she and the girl had collected the latter's clothing, Charles Devoyn refused to permit them to leave the house and prodded her with a cane and grasped her by the throat and flourished a revolver, threatening to kill her. While giving the details of the alleged assault, Mrs. Leahy suffered a heart attack and collapsed. She was attended by physicians summoned from the Health Department.

Titus joined the old Liberty Bank in 1916 as manager of its credit department. When the Liberty Bank and the Central National Bank were consolidated, he was elected to his present position.

VIVIANI CONFERS WITH LODGE ON MISSION TO U. S.

Conference With Republican Senator in Senate Follows
Dinner at French Embassy
Last Night.

WANTS MORAL SUPPORT OF U. S.

Senators Under Impression France Opposes Adoption by Congress of Knox Peace Resolution.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, April 1.—Former Premier Viviani of France conferred today with Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, Republican leader in the Senate, at the latter's home and it was understood that the mission of the French envoy was discussed at length. The conference followed a dinner at the French embassy last night at which several Senators, including Lodge, were present and where the general import of M. Viviani's visit was developed.

In addition to seeking the moral support of the United States for France, Senators who have conferred with members of the French mission said today that they had a definite impression of French opposition to adoption by Congress of the Knox resolution to terminate the state of war with Germany.

Although it was said that M. Vi-viani and his associates were not to be understood as attempting to interfere with this nation's foreign policy, they are understood to view with concern any move in the United States which might weaken Germany in opposing the allies' reparations policy.

Republican Senators participating in the discussion said they doubted whether the visit of M. Viviani would affect international policies of the United States.

M. Viviani, in conference with Senator Lodge and George W. Wickham, former Attorney-General, after the dinner last night, reviewed at some length results of the recent London conference in which allied reparation demands were refused by Germany.

The former Premier, it was said, endeavored to set at rest all reports that France intended to ask for any remission of its debt to the United States. He took occasion also, it was said, to set at rest any presumption that the official viewpoint of France was represented in any way in the recent contention in the French Parliament that a debt was due France by America in unpaid loans dating from the Revolutionary War.

M. Viviani was said to have pointed out the barrier which France opposed to the westward spread of Bolshevism, and in envisaging the possible renewal of a Bolshevik offensive this year, to have emphasized the hearty approval with which the recent reply of Secretary Hughes to the Russian Soviet Government's invitation to enter upon formal trade arrangements had been received in France.

Officials present at the dinner emphasized that, in his conversation, M.
Viviani made no suggestion or concrete proposal for American aid. He was understood to have stated merely that France could not proceed to the task confronting her without the moral support of the United States as well as the allied Powers.

M. Viviani has addressed a message of greeting here to the American people in his first public statement since arriving in the United States.

"I have accepted the mission with which the Government of my country has honored me," M. Viviani said, "with a deeper joy, as by entrusting me with the mantle of bringing to President Harding the wishes which friendly France forms for him and for his administration,
I could have the opportunity, through you, to hail America, whole America."

"I came here, in other times, traveling dark and, which, however, shine for me with all the enthusiasm projected by the past."

"This enthusiasm gave me the comfort which is so necessary to continue the struggle."

"You may imagine the sacred emotion which I felt when returning amongst you. Let me express to you this emotion in my message.
Never America, whole America, will know the gratitude of my country for her."

"From the Atlantic to the Pacific, from North to South, on magnificent are splendidly and harmoniously

Only Taxpayers Can Vote in School Election April 8

DEFINITION of qualification to vote at the special election on school tax, April 8, has been made by the Board of Election Commissioners to judges of election as follows:

Under the Constitution and laws of the State, all voters, otherwise qualified, voting at this election, must be taxpayers.

A taxpayer is one who regularly pays general (real or personal) taxes.

Or, one who regularly pays a merchant's and manufacturer's tax.

Or, one who regularly pays a State income tax.

Judges of election are required to ask each prospective voter if he or she is a taxpayer, but unless there is reason for doubt a sworn affidavit is not necessary.

The law does not expressly require that voters offering to vote at this election should produce written evidence showing that they are taxpayers. In the absence of evidence to the contrary, the statement, under oath, of the voter that he, or she, is a taxpayer, is sufficient evidence to justify the judges in permitting him, or her, to vote.

The payment of a tax by a partnership renders each member of the partnership a taxpayer, although the bill may be made in the name of the partnership.

Where State or city tax is assessed against both a man and his wife jointly, both are taxpayers.

Ownership of stock in a State national bank, for which an income tax is assessed, confers eligibility, although the stock is not owned by the voter in any other corporate form.

Payment of a dog license is not a qualification.

Persons to whom we owe so great a debt.

SCHOOL CHILDREN'S POSTERS USED IN TAX CAMPAIGN

Pupils Also Make One-Minute Speeches Before Groups of Parents in Interest of Increase.

INSIGNIFICANCE OF COST POINTED OUT

Attention Called to Fact That in Some Cases Cost of One Ice Cream Soda Will Pay Difference.

Posters appearing in the windows of various mercantile establishments in widely scattered portions of the city are the contribution of school children to the campaign to induce voters to grant a 10-cent increase in the tax for school purposes.

School children also are making one-minute speeches at meetings before their elders in which the following phrases are used to show the insignificance of the increased tax to the average taxpayer:

"Suppose one is assessed $100, two
'buffaloes' will pay the extra tax.
Two unsmoked 5-cent cigars will pay it."

"An ice cream soda—one out of a whole year—will pay the taxes on $300."

"By saving a 2-cent postage stamp per week the entire tax on an assessment of $1000 can be more than paid."

A mass meeting will be held tonight at the Rock Springs School which former Judge Henry Caulfield will speak in behalf of the tax increase. Meetings daily are being held in other schools during which classes are assembled and present their daily work for the information of their parents and others.

John M. Maddox, Acting Superintendent of Schools, yesterday spoke before the Kiwanis Club at a luncheon in the Annex Hotel. He declared that the school system was a model, but that it needed further funds, if letting conditions be bettered.

sociation has been added to the list increase.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—Protection of the farmers on an equality with manufacturers and industrial interests in any tariff policy which is to be decided upon and adding to any rates which may be levied "an amount intended to offset the freight charges in getting products to the consuming centers" is urged in a statement by Secretary Wallace.

The heavy additional burden imposed on the producers by increased freight rates, the Secretary declared, "are a differential imposed upon our own producers and to the benefit of our foreign competitors."

Manufacturers "naturally and properly" laying plans to meet foreign competition in the world markets and desire a tariff to protect them against cheap foreign goods, Wallace asserted, but he insisted that the situation facing the producers
"must be considered" in any tariff legislation, whether emergency or permanent.

Producers, he said, are being driven to lower prices below the cost of production, "not alone because of inactive business conditions at home, but because of the importations of competing foreign goods."

The nation "cannot afford to permit the breaking down of its own agriculture," the Secretary continued, "even if for a time we can buy food and other farm products cheaper from some one else."

Presently, he said, there is a large surplus of agricultural products, but this will not continue, because the population is growing and consumption will catch up with production.

"PRESIDENT" VAGUE ON PEACE QUESTION

Asserts Sinn Fein Will Never Admit That England May Dictate Any Alliance on Partnership.

By the Associated Press.
DUBLIN, April 1.—Eamonn De Valera, "President of the Irish republic," replying to a questionnaire in the Freeman's Journal yesterday made vague concerning the question of the peace in Ireland, but he stated definitely that the Dail Eireann had decided not to place a ban on the coming Irish elections, but on the contrary would contest every constituency.

De Valera declared that negotiations with the British Government on the basis of the partition actively were altogether out of the question.
He reiterated that Premier Lloyd George could have peace tomorrow if he desired it on the basis of right and justice.

"But," De Valera added, "we will never admit that England may dictate to us any alliance or partnership suiting her interests."

De Valera's statement in part.
Since the St. Patrick's day interview given to the Associated Press by De Valera, he has been deluged with requests for interviews or answers to questionnaires. The statement given to the Freeman's Journal yesterday adds little to his previous declarations. Among other things he said:

"If Mr. Lloyd George desires peace let the aggression of which he is guilty, and which we desire no quarrel. Repeatedly we have indicated that if England is able to show any rights with which Ireland's rights as a nation would be added, we would be willing that these should be adjusted by negotiations and treaty. But we will never surrender our rights or other interests. Any attempt at such violation will have to be re-fected by force, and will rest on force alone."

Asked why he had not responded to the requests for interviews and discuss matters with the responsible leaders of Irish opinion, De Valera said: "Because Mr. Lloyd George was never prepared to deal with the situation in the only way it could be settled—a question between two moral equals. He has shown that he has no will for just and equal settlement, and every act of his has evidenced gross insincerity.
The Irish people have learned too many lessons to be trapped again. It is natural that we yearn for peace from our very souls, but we are not going to make the mistake of imagining that the British Government is similarly disposed when we have decide daily proofs to the contrary."

Decision as to Elections.
Questioned regarding the Dail Eireann's attitude toward the elections under the partition act, De Valera replied:

"The Dail Eireann is concerned with one question only, whether to sanction the holding of the elections or place a ban on them, and order citizens to boycott them. As they can be used to prove again how unalterably the heart of this country is fixed upon independence, and how determined is the opposition of almost every section of the Irish people to any attempt to partition the country into hostile camps, the Dail Eireann has decided not to ban the proposed elections."

Confirmation has been received,
however, that only two officers,
Sergeant Shea and Constable Barlas, were killed. They were buried under the walls of the barracks when the structure was blown down with

The barracks were defended by
the head constable, two constables,
and all have been accounted for. Head

DUBLIN, April 1.—Search of the ruins of the Ross Carbery Police Barracks, which were destroyed yesterday morning during an attack by Sinn Feiners, is as yet impossible, owing to explosions in the debris.
Confirmation has been received,
however, that only two officers,
Sergeant Shea and Constable Barlas,
were killed. They were buried under the walls of the barracks when the structure was blown down with gelignite.

The barracks were defended by
the head constable, two constables,
and all have been accounted for. Head
Constable Neary and eight privates

RELIGIOUS ASPECTS OF IRISH DISORDERS ARE DISCUSSED IN SUPPLEMENTARY REPORT

Findings Made Public by Protestant Members of Unofficial Commission State Religion Is Not Primary Factor in Trouble.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, April 1.—Religious aspects of the troubles in Ireland are discussed in a report made public here which supplements the 30,000-word findings of the Commission of the Committee of One Hundred investigating the Irish question.
The supplementary report, made by the Protestant members of the commission, summarizes the evidence presented at the hearings held here in November, December and January, as follows:

1. "Outside of a part of Ulster, Catholics and Protestants live in peace and harmony, and their political opinions are not primarily a matter of religion."

2. "Even in Ulster religious bigotry is not by any means wholly spontaneous, but is artificially stirred up by those whose economic and political interests are served by dividing the people."

3. "While it lies obviously beyond our province to pass final judgment upon the religious aspects of the Ulster issue, we have not only a right, but a duty, as American Protestants to denounce the degradation of religion by such pogroms as occurred last summer. Upon this subject we owe it to our fellow religionists both in America and in Ulster, to speak plainly."

Only One Member Catholic.
All of the members of the commission, excepting United States Senator David I. Walsh of Massachusetts, are Protestants. C. Howe, former United States Commissioner of Immigration, New York; James H.
Maurer, president American Federation of Labor of Pennsylvania; Maj.
Oliver P. Newman, formerly commissioner of the District of Columbia; United States Senator George W.
Norris of Nebraska, and the Rev.
Norman Thomas of New York.

"No examination of the Irish situation can ignore the religious issue," says the report. "It seemed peculiarly appropriate that three Protestants should be in the commission, and that the Protestant majority in the rest of Ireland to the majority rule of their Catholic neighbors."

Proportion of Catholics.
The report continued: "In Ireland there were, according to the census of 1911, 1,147,594 non-Catholics, as against 3,242,570 Catholics. Of these non-Catholics, 890,850 (as compared with 690,850 Catholics) are in Ulster, leaving 256,714 non-Catholics (as compared with 2,641, 714 Catholics) in all the rest of Ireland. This small minority is, of course, physically at the mercy of the Catholic majority. Yet there is no record not one single case of violence against the Protestants of any Protestant on account of his religion. The Catholics were aware of the Ulster pogroms. They suffered under imperial British forces predominantly Protestant in their composition. The Ulster Protestants who did not spare the priests, convents and churches, yet they were guilty of no reprisals of any sort upon their Protestant neighbors."

The alleged "excesses" of the British forces in Ireland, the report said, were "tending to dispose Southern Protestants favorably toward the republican government." Protestant business men, clergymen and farmers were reported as resorting to republican causes. The commission stated that Miss Mary MacSwiney and other women had been called to attention that "many of the patriot leaders in Ireland" history were Protestant. It was said that they further testified that the republican forces in which Protestants were the aggressors partook of the charac-

Kanana Town Must Hold Election.
TOPEKA, Kan., April 1.—The City Clerk of Kiowa, Barber County, today asked Richard J. Hopkins, Attorney General, if a city election could be dispensed with this year

if the present officers can be induced to hold over. According to the letter received by Hopkins, no candidates have been found who are willing to have their names placed on the ticket at the city election next Monday. The election must be held, the Attorney General ruled. If no candidate appears blank ballots will be printed, and voters will write in names of persons for whom they desire to vote.

MASCAGNI IN UNION OF THEATER WORKERS

Hopes It Will Soon Be Able to Undertake Management of Big Naples House.

ROME, April 1.—Pietro Mascagni, composer of operas, is enthusiastic about the new organization, the Neapolitan Artistic Co-operative Between Theater Workers, which he recently helped to form at Naples and believes it soon will be in a financial position to take over the management of the San Carlos Theater. This is one of the largest theaters in Europe and was founded by Charles III in 1737.

"The moment this is possible," he said, on his return from Naples to Rome, "the profits going to theater workers will be such that they will be spurred to produce to their best ability. We shall be helped by the fact that the San Carlos Theater is municipal property."

"The great problem we have to solve today in Italy, as elsewhere, is that of changing the status of the laboring classes and give them a deep interest in the success of the enterprise in which they are engaged."

"That is what I tried and succeeded in doing at Leghorn (Mascagni's native city) when the men occupied the works there. I was accused of being a Bolshevik because I put myself at their head, remembering that I am the son of a working man and that I have risen to my present position only through work. I preached the sacred duty of labor, which alone can regenerate humanity, and those men performed miracles."

In defining the purpose of the Co-operative in his address to artists and theater workers, Mascagni said:

"We desire to teach these generous people (the Italians) every day and hour more of the cult of beauty, by instituting a true theater of the people with great spectacles, both lyric and dramatic, and great orchestral concerts. We desire to transform the old popular theaters and reconstruct them according to economic and artistic ideas, to combine the beauty of the surroundings with possibility for all purposes. We desire to take over communal theaters in order that in them the citizens may have the right to enjoy the highest artistic manifestations of the day; nor shall access to the great spectacles be monopolized by few privileged by fortune, but it shall be the unlimited right of every good and simple soul who loves art. "When this program is carried out, the artist will be no more the eternal legendary gipsy, nor will he need to drown, in the disorder of an irregular life, his ancient, implacable poverty."

Mascagni looks as young as ever, although his hair begins to be marked with silver threads. He receives his visitors in grassy pajamas with red revers and buttons.

Man Detained 4 Months on Boat.

YANCOUVILLE, B. C., April 1.—After being detained aboard the steamer Makura for four months, O. T. Grattan Esmonde was permitted to land here yesterday. Esmonde agreed to return immediately to Esmondia. Through the refusal of Australian authorities to permit him to land, he was confined on the Makura nearly four months.

BRITISH EMBASSY REPLIES TO REPORT ON IRISH SITUATION

ment. There has been no indiscriminate killing. Men have been shot through falling to halt when challenged by sentries, and innocent persons, including women and children, have suffered death or wounds in course of armed conflict resulting from unprovoked attacks made by Sinn Féin's upon forces of the Crown in crowded streets. Apart from these and similar inadvertent casualties, the record of the Crown forces is absolutely clean, so far as women and children are concerned.

Says Charges Were Disproved. "Reports of torturing of prisoners have been completely disproved wherever attempts are made to bring forward tangible evidence."

"There are the strongest grounds for attributing to extreme Sinn Féin the murders of prominent republicans, such as Lord Mayor McCurtain of Cork and the Mayor and Alderman of Limerick."

"The practice recently adopted of carrying hostages has entirely fulfilled its sole purpose, namely, to minimize murderous attacks on the Crown forces, and to prevent loss of life. Captured documents show clearly its restraining effect. No woman has ever been carried as a hostage."

"The military authorities have destroyed as a legitimate penalty the property of persons who are known to have been able to prevent serious outrages but did not do so."

"Fines are not levied on towns and villages."

"Some months ago the authority of the law had been everywhere ridden throughout a large part of Ireland. This is no longer the case. So-called Sinn Féin courts have everywhere ceased to function and there are no republicans, civil officials who are not in hiding."

"The regular assize courts were held throughout Ireland in the month of March."

"The voters of the Sinn Féin, or Republican party, at the general election in 1918, represented, in spite of widespread intimidation, less than half a million out of an electorate of nearly 2,000,000. In addition, they secured 23 uncontested seats, but the total electorate of the constituents concerned, which was by no means entirely Sinn Féin, was less than 450,000."

Clothing Prices for Spring, 1921, Are 30% Lower Than in 1920

If you have been under the impression that clothing prices are high, dispel the idea. All things considered, they are low—just as low as conditions will warrant, and as low as they should be for some time to come.

They are not as low as they were in 1914, but that is to be expected with the increased cost of labor. However, the prices are 30 per cent lower than 1920.

The clothing industry operated at great disadvantage last year during price deflation. Things have become stabilized, and the present standards of values are those which men can accept as being entirely reasonable and equitable.

We are selling new Spring clothes on the basis of the new Spring prices. There can be, and there are, no other "values" back of new Spring clothes than those which are represented in the figures at which the garments are offered for sale.

If greater values are claimed for clothes than the prices quoted, those values are based upon former prices and cannot be based upon present-day conditions.

Merchants must meet new conditions daily; and when they arise new prices are established. In such instances old prices should be forgotten and not made a basis for value claims.

We are selling good Kuppenheimer Suits for $35. Others are priced to $75. At every price you will get a good, honest value.

DETROIT SYMPHONY
IN CONCERT TONIGHT

Ossip Gabrilowitch to Make First Appearance Here as Conductor at Odeon.

Ossip Gabrilowitch and the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, of which he is director, will arrive at 6:08 p. m. today for a concert to be given tonight at the Odeon. This is the first visit of the Detroit organization to this city, and Gabrilowitch's first appearance here as a director, although in former years he was well-known in St. Louis as a virtuoso pianist. His body of musicians is the second guest orchestra to be entertained here this season, the other having been the orchestra of La Scala Opera House, under Arturo Toscanini.

The Detroit orchestra is said to number 100 musicians. Enjoying the most generous financial support, it was able to engage Gabrilowitch at a prima donna salary and to enlist some of the best available performers. In the last two years the organization has attained a high place and has become widely known through its tours in this country and Canada.

Gabrilowitch is a Russian and was a pupil of Rubinstein and Leschetzky. He came to this country as a youthful prodigy, and became one of the most prominent concert pianists. Of interest to Missourians is the fact that he married Clara Clemens, a well-known singer and a daughter of "Mark Twain."

The chief orchestral number on tonight's program will be the First Symphony of Brahms, in C Minor, which was offered by Theodore Spiering on his trial program as guest conductor with the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra, on March 11 and 12. The concluding number will be Rimsky-Korsakoff's "Carnival on Spanish Themes," which Tschalkowsky declared "a colossal masterpiece of instrumentation," and which, with its numerous solos, dialogues and cadenzas, provides an exceptional opportunity for displaying the individual virtuosity of an orchestra. The program in detail will be as follows:

Weber.....Overture to "Oberon."
Brahms.....Symphony No. 1, in C Minor.
Op. 68.

I. Un poco sostenuto: Allegro.
II. Andante sostenuto.
III. Un poco allegretto e grazioso.
IV. Adagio: Allegro non troppo ma con brio.

Debussy—Prelude to "L'Après-Midi d'un Faune." Rimsky-Korsakoff—Capriccio Espagnol, Op. 34.
I. Alborado; II. Variations; III. Alborado; IV. Scene and Gipsy Song; V. Fandango of the Asturias.

Gabrilowitch's last appearance in St. Louis was at a joint recital at the Sheldon Memorial Auditorium, with Paul Gruppé, violinist, several years ago.

COMPLAINT AGAINST PIANO

Alderman Says Electric Instrument Disturbs His Peace.

Charles A. Groeschel of 5829 A Arsenal street, Alderman from the Twenty-fourth Ward, appeared in the Police Court yesterday against J. C. Kordenbrock, a caterer at 5902 Southwest avenue, whom he charges with disturbing his peace and maintaining a nuisance.

Groeschel testified that Kordenbrock operates an electric piano in his place and that the piano was continually playing from 7:30 a. m. to 11 p. m. daily. He said he lived about 200 feet from the restaurant. He complained that it made so much noise "that he was unable to do any business at his home, talk over the telephone, or sleep." He also said that tenants who occupy two bungalows that he owns in the vicinity have also complained about the noise from the piano. Judge Littler referred the matter to a parole officer and continued the case to April 28.

$600,000 CHURCH CAMPAIGN

A campaign of two months, during which time every church of the denomination will be canvassed in an effort to raise $600,000 to meet the obligation incurred in underwriting the Interchurch World Movement, was decided upon yesterday by the delegates to the Field Workers' Conference of the Disciples of Christ at the Planters Hotel. Over 150 State and regional workers have been in attendance at the three-day conference which closed last night.

Dr. Guy Hoover of Indianapolis has been tendered the position of secretary to the Board of Education of the denomination, but has not yet stated whether he will accept.

FOUR MEN LINE UP. DOZEN CUSTOMERS AND ROB STORE

Proprietor of Confectionery Searched and Cash Register Looted of $25—Women Present.

Four men got out of an automobile in front of the confectionery of Charles Kaufman, 2691 Macklind avenue, at 9:45 o'clock last night. Three drew revolvers and entered the store, creating commotion on the part of a dozen customers, most of whom were women. The fourth man remained at the front door and a fifth man sat in the automobile, the engine of which was kept running. The customers and Kaufman were ordered to stand with their backs to the rear wall of the store, and while two of the robbers kept them covered, the third robber began searching Kaufman. He took $17 in cash, a check for $12, a watch and chain and a Masonic charm from Kaufman and then went to the cash register and took $25.

"Shall I search the women?" he asked his companions. The two robbers standing guard held a whispered consultation.

"No," said the leader, "pass 'em up." There were a few men present among the customers, but no attempt was made to rob them. The robbers backed out of the store and escaped in the automobile.

Among the women in the store were Mrs. Myrtle Cohan of 2601A Macklind avenue, Miss A. Luechfeld of 350 Perdella place, Miss A. Schaab of 2705 January avenue and Miss L. Klare of 5620 Botanical avenue.

Two Men Get $40 in Holdup of Oil Filling Station.
Two men drove in an automobile to the Pierce Oil Corporation's filling station on the Clayton road, west of McCausland avenue, at 7:45 p. m., and after ordering the manager, John W. Blake, and his clerk, Edward Langlitz, into a back room demanded that Blake open the safe. Blake said that he did not have the combination, but when one of the robbers threatened to shoot him, he opened the safe, and handed over its contents, $40. The robbers then took $2 from Langlitz and after locking the door of the back room, escaped.

Blake and Langlitz got out of the room through a window and telephoned to the police.
Three men who used an automobile held up the drug store of Herman Reuter, 5825 Gravois avenue, at 9:30 p. m. They took $25 from the cash register, $20 from the clerk, August Schmeidler, and $14 from Morris Vojtasek, of 3293 Miami street, a customer.

Twelve quarts of whiskey and six quarts of wine were stolen yesterday afternoon in a burglary at the home of Harry W. Kroeger, 3440

OILDAG Stood the Test!

"The Greatest of All Lubricants"

How the Test Was Made

An Auburn Touring Car that had been regularly lubricated with Oildag was used. Every drop of Oildag was drained from the crank case. The car was then driven 15 miles over St. Louis streets, through all kinds of traffic, at speeds ranging for 15 to 25 miles an hour. Not a single drop of lubricant of any kind was put in the car during this trip. At the end of the test the crank case was opened and all bearings and friction surfaces inspected. NOW READ WHAT THE INSPECTORS FOUND!

15 Miles With Crank Case Drained!

Not a single bearing was overheated! Not a single friction surface was affected or damaged! All during the test, full power came from the motor! OILDAG again proved that it is rightfully called by those who know "The Greatest of All Lubricants." OILDAG did just what we claimed that it would. Every bearing, every friction surface was perfectly protected with a Graphoid Surface—friction was reduced to a minimum.

What Is OILDAG?

OILDAG is the invention of Dr. Acheson, who invented CARBORUNDUM. Dr. Acheson invented the process whereby Acheson Graphite is produced in liquid form. This Liquid Acheson Graphite, held in suspension in the highest grade lubricating oil, forms Oildag.

What Does It Do?

This Liquid Acheson Graphite fills those microscopic imperfections found in the finest of bearing surfaces, forming what is known as a Graphoid Surface. This reduces friction to a minimum. By reducing friction, you get full power from your motor and prevent bearing and motor trouble.

Why Is OILDAG Better Than Plain Oil?

As an example, take the cylinders of your car. The combustion will break any ordinary oil film—but it cannot break a Graphoid Surface. This means that you get full power from every explosion and that lubrication is perfect, instead of being interrupted and an oil film broken every time a cylinder explodes.

WHY OILDAG STOOD THE TEST

It is a mechanical impossibility to form or make a bearing surface perfect. In the finest of bearing surfaces there are myriads of microscopic cracks and crevices. The Liquid Acheson Graphite in OILDAG had completely filled those tiny crevices. A graphoid surface had been formed by the OILDAG which had been previously used in the test car. That is what made it possible for this car to run 15 miles with the crank case drained! That is the way OILDAG will protect your car!

OILDAG

"The Greatest of All Lubricants"

Not only does OILDAG lubrication reduce friction to a minimum, it also reduces your fuel cost! It adds miles to each gallon of gasoline you put in your car. More than that—eliminating friction gives you full power from your motor. Eliminating friction gives your car and motor longer life. A graphoid surface is formed on both piston and cylinder walls—increasing power and making less carbon.

Not only will we guarantee you more power at less fuel cost, but any OILDAG dealer will refund your money paid for 4 quarts of OILDAG for a trial test at our risk. We want to prove to you that OILDAG is what we claim—"The Greatest of All Lubricants."

THREE CLEANUP DIVISION MEMBERS SUSPENDED

Two Policemen Admit Having Drink in Saloon; Third Says He Took Bitters.

Three officers of the police cleanup division were suspended last night upon order of Philip H. Brockman, member of the Police Board, on charges of drinking while on duty, unbecoming conduct and neglect of duty. They are Probationaries Earl Schreiber, 25, 5025 Bacon avenue, and Jake Cook, 25, 2117 Salisbury street, and Patrolman Edward Timmer, 30, 1230 Victor street.

The two probationaries admitted in statements having had two drinks of whiskey in the saloon of George W. Marable, 1500 Olive street. Timmer declared that he had two drinks of bitters in the saloon.

Immediately thereafter there was a commotion in a rooming house at 1412 Olive street and a crowd gathered outside the house. The police were informed that a woman was on the fire escape calling for help.

Upon their entrance they found Peter Cladis, 1414 Olive street, lying in a front room at the house with his head under a bed. He was suffering from scalp wounds. His lips were cut and swollen. He said that three men had beaten him while he was talking to Mrs. Martha Stewart, the proprietor, about renting a room.

Mrs. Stewart was called from the fire escape. She said that she was talking to Cladis when the three policemen entered, beat Cladis, forced their way through a door and so alarmed her that she ran onto the fire escape. The policemen were in civilian clothing.

Cook and Schreiber still were in the house. Timmer had disappeared. Schreiber, in a written report, stated only that he had had two drinks of whiskey in Marable's saloon. Cook declared that a woman at the rooming-house had "roped" them and that they thereupon raided the house. He said that Cladis had been beaten before their entry.

Timmer later reported that as he and the two probationaries were passing the house, a woman said, "come on in, boys," and that they raided the place. He said Cladis had been beaten before they entered. Asked how he came to depart, he said that the woman had run out a back door and that he had pursued her to Fifteenth and Olive streets, where she disappeared. Thereupon, he said, he returned to the house, found it locked and went on his way to join his beat partner.

Tax Relief Demanded Before Tariff Revision

A nation-wide poll of the country's leading newspapers conducted by THE LITERARY DIGEST reveals a majority, regardless of party, of nearly five to one for giving precedence to the readjustment of our "galling tax burdens."

The profoundly interesting leading article in the April 2d issue of THE DIGEST gives a comprehensive survey of the answers received from publications of all shades of opinion. These are couched in no uncertain terms, the New York Journal of Commerce stating that "all authorities and members of all parties, groups, and schools of thought agree that the internal-revenue duties (including income and excess-profits taxes) are a chief cause of business depression and disturbance and that they must be revised. Few, if any, except some interested manufacturers, believe the same of the tariff situation." The Hartford Courant declares that "a change in the tax laws would receive universal approval, but no change in the tariff can fail to find savage critics, and Congress will be wise to begin with what all want rather than what is sure to find opponents. The need is greater and the opportunity more attractive," and the Norfolk Ledger-Dispatch insists that we "give tax revision the right of way, for this tremendous problem affects every state, every section, every community, every individual," while the Chicago Post holds that "there is vastly more dissatisfaction with the existing system of taxation than there is with the present tariff."

The Literary Digest
FUNK & WAGNALLS COMPANY (Publishers of the Famous NEW Standard Dictionary), NEW YORK

The figure which is larger below the waist than above is effectively corrected by Redfern. Note reduction shown by dotted lines.

Do you look your best in the styles of today?

Or are there many styles you would like to wear and cannot—because of your lines? The Redfern Corset will take your figure as it is and re-form it into lines of fashion. You will have new contours and a more youthful silhouette.

There is no secret about the way the Redfern re-forms the figure. No appliances are used. What Redfern designers have done is simply to bring about a higher development of corset designing.

For each special type of figure a special Redfern model has been devised which will bring that figure into conformity with the styles of today. This is accomplished with the utmost comfort, health and ease of movement to the wearer of the corset.

Redfern cloth and boning preserve perfect lines as long as the corset lasts. Ask for Redfern by name at the better stores.

Hair Free Arm Pits

There are many things which will remove unsightly hairs—but many of them so irritate, burn and reddens the skin as to make it a sight to look upon. It is no longer necessary to go at it in such a haphazard manner. Superfluous hair can now be removed by an absolutely safe and sure method. It is absolutely safe and sure to remove every hair, no matter how thick or how long it is. It is a method that is not a vestige of it remains. There is only one thing that will do this, and that is auto solution. This can be obtained from any drug store. The hairs are merely moistened with it for a few moments and then are seen to literally wither and dissolve away and are wiped off, leaving a skin absolutely perfect, spotless, soft and smooth. This is the sensible method, and it is the only one that will remove the hair growth, it never fails to remove the hairs completely and thoroughly.

Skin Creams, to Accomplish the Greatest Good, Should Be Frodo Made.

Your complexion is not merely in the very outer skin. It is deeper than that. It is in that part of the skin immediately underneath the outer layer. Complexion creams which merely affect the outer layer are, as a rule, very ineffectual. A method gaining wide use because of its tremendous success lies in the use of zintone, a powder which is mixed at home with a little glycerine and dissolved in water. This makes an exquisite cream. The zintone can be secured at any drug store in one-ounce packages. This is also a very economical method. By liberal use of this article, a tremendous difference in the complexion is noted in a few days by the disappearance of mudiness, sallowness, red spots, freckles and other blemishes.

To Remove Blackheads Without Pinching or Squeezing.

There is only one preparation sold exclusively for the instant removal of blackheads, without pinching or squeezing the flesh, and that is herosin. Try this powder (not a soap) on your wash cloth tonight and see how quickly blackheads are dissolved. Herosin powder in original package is to be found at any drug store, and a package will last for some time.

WITH A KICK

Because of their stimulating effect onions have been called the vegetable with a kick.

Since prohibition became effective the demand for this snappy little vegetable has almost doubled.

Which is a fortunate coincidence, for onions have a food value not generally appreciated.

In fact, they contain more calories than some meat, and as served at CHILDS, are a genuine treat.

Boiled onions with cream sauce—the best of a well balanced meal.

U. R. RECEIVER ASKING FOR BIDS

ON ADVERTISING SPACE IN CARS

Bids Also Asked On Fender Space. Hitherto Given Free to Events of General Interest.

The receiver for the United Railways is asking for bids on the advertising space within the company cars and, for the first time, for the space on the boards carried on the car fenders, use of which in the past has been given free to events and movements of general interest.

During the operation of the company by its owners this contract went each year without bid to the Western Advertising Co., which resold the space. The attention of the receiver was called to the price paid for this privilege by an offer of another company to pay $40,000 more than the $43,000 paid by the Western company. This caused a review of the contract in Federal Court and, under the court's suggestion, a renewal of the Western contract for two years now expiring at a price $16,000 higher than it had been paying.

750 FIGHT TICKETS STOLEN

Salesman Is Arrested Following Complaint of Promoter.

Ivan Michaloff, of Brooklyn, N. Y., a guest at the American Hotel, told the police he was in St. Louis to promote a prize fight at the Polish-American Hall, asked detective last night to investigate the theft of 750 tickets to the fight. They were taken from a table in his room at the hotel while he was absent yesterday. The tickets were not stamped "sold," he said. They were for 50 cents, $1 and $1.50 seats.

The police, investigating the theft, took into custody a salesman who had 11 unstamped tickets. He claimed he bought the tickets for speculation purposes.

RECALL OF THREE NORTH DAKOTA OFFICIALS TO BE ATTEMPTED

By the Associated Press.
DEVILS LAKE, N. D., April 1.— Petitions calling for a recall election against three State officials, elected ment, will be circulated soon, following the decision last night of the

Gleason Destined For Regular Job At Pivot Station

New Second-Sacker Pleases Browns' Manager in Training Camp Campaign.

SMITH ON THE HOT SACK

Former Outfielder Is Making Fairly Satisfactory Third Base- man, Fohl Says.

Lee Alexander Fohl, the Browns' new chauffeur, is one who believes that Bill Gleason, the second sacker, who is attempting to fill the shoes of Joe Gedeon, will come through with a reliable performance in this position. Fohl so expressed himself yesterday, after he had sent his message through a drill at Sportsman's Park that lasted almost five hours.

"When asked concerning Gleason, Fohl answered as follows: 'I do not expect Gleason to prove a sensation, but from what I have seen of him the slip weeks ago in the South, I am confident that he will prove a reliable man. He fields well, and at the plate I think he will be a hard man to pitch to. He strikes me as well as those ready performers who play at the same speed day in and day out.'

"The Browns' pivot station guard was hit by 25 years old his next birthday. He was born at Chicago, Sept. 8, 1895. At present during the off-season he resides at Holyoke, Mass. He stands 5 feet 4 1/2 inches, and weighs 155 pounds. He is going to be a third baseman, but Fohl said he is not yet 'perfect.' 'This could not be expected of a man who, having played the outfield all his life, is then shifted to the infield. However, Earl is going better every day, and I think the position will be well taken care of.'

"These are the only doubtful positions on the Browns' club, as Fohl owns good hitters as well as experienced fielders in all the other places.

Team Has Good Workout. Despite the fact that it was pretty chilly on the ball field here yesterday, Fohl asserted that it was the kind of weather needed to put the athletes on edge. Six weeks of constant work in the South, with only one off-day and just about "burned out" the men, and the change in climate put the needed "pep" into their work.

"There is one flinger in the new crop of mound material Fohl chaperoned to the South who is expected to do a lot of good. This person is Nick Cullip, the veteran southpaw. Cullip, according to Fohl, has paid strict attention to baseball this spring and has looked mighty good. Fohl also speaks highly of Billy Byrne, another sidewheeler.

Yesterday's practice at Sportsman's Park consisted of a long batting drill for the veterans during which they hit against all sorts of pitches, with only this there was a long infield drill, with Siler at first, Gleason at second, Gerber and Dudley at short and Smith at the hot corner. Left field hit grounders until the regulars could hardly stand.

After this the hurlers had their inning, being put through a long batting drill. Another workout will be held today. It will be called at 2 o'clock, to enable the Cardinals to go through the paces this afternoon.

Concerning the pitcher for the first game of the series with the Cardinals tomorrow, Fohl said that it might be either Dave Slocum or Sutherland. Davis, however, is favored.

McManus' Arm Is Sore. Marty McManus, the young infielder snared from the Tulsa club, is still having trouble with his arm. McManus left the squad at Bogalusa and went to a doctor at Nashville. McManus thought that the wing was again, sharp, but yesterday Fohl said that it still bothered him when he attempted to get the ball away quickly. Quinlan intends to send him to a local doctor.

Impress: Owens and Moran. While not yet officially announced, the umpires for the spring series will without doubt be Clarence Owens for the American League and Charles Moran of the National.

Browne Orders 'Hornaby' Bats. The ordering of special bats is not confined to the reputed sluggers alone, but also to the pitchers. This was indicated at Sportsman's Park yesterday, when 'Dixie' Davis displayed two new 'Hornaby' models, which he ordered especially for himself. As Davis remarked, one was bat against the right-handers and the other for the southpaws.

Kenneth Williams ordered 12 new clubs to be sent to St. Louis, ranging in weight from 40 to 47 ounces. Siler also put in a bid for two sets of bats. He has three new clubs. Billings half a dozen Schalk models, Gerber four Gleason three, Wells one, and new Siler, two George Weavers for Austin, six Ray Demmitts for Tobin, three Scotts for Pat Collins, six for Jacobson and half a dozen Tobin models for Todd.

At the training camp the following new clubs were sent: Four for Williams, three for Severid and Jacobson, two Bill Rodgers models for McManus, two Tobin for Dudley, two Gerbers and three Silers for Wetzell. With the bats retailing at $3 each this season this is quite an item.

BASEBALL INJURY FATAL TO HIGH SCHOOL PLAYER

WINNONSVILLE, S. C., April 1.—A high school player, who was hit on the head by a pitched ball in a baseball game between Timmonsville and Florence high schools, died yesterday as a result of the injury.

Indians, Despite World's Series Victory Last Fall, Will Not Be Top-Heavy Favorites This Year

Absence of Chapman From Speaker's Infield and Uncertainty Attending Pitching Performances of Caldwell and Bagby, Make Cleveland's Future Uncertain.

No. 14—CLEVELAND INDIANS.

TRIS SPEAKER, who chaperoned the Cleveland Indians to an American League pennant and a world's championship last season, will open the 1921 campaign at Sportsman's Park against the Browns April 12, with an entirely veteran team. Speaker is "standing pat" on the athletes he employed in defeating the Brooklyn Superbas last October.

Despite this fact, it is no certainty that the Forest City aggregation will repeat its success of 1920. There are various reasons for this assertion. First of all, pitching records show that hurlers rarely follow up a sensational performance with another the following campaign. In regard to Speaker's flingers, this statement applies more to Jim Bagby than it does to Stanley Coveleskie. The big "spitter" was turned in his share of the victories ever since he has been with the club, and unless something unexpected happens, should repeat this season.

However, with Bagby it is different. This veteran in 1920 turned in 31 conquests—more than any other in the major leagues—and is hardly counted upon to repeat.

Then there is that shortstop position. Joe Sewell, the New Orleans rookie, did great work at the place made vacant by the untimely death of Ray Chapman during the late clashes of the regular season and also in the world's series. However, on occasions Sewell proved an erratic fielder. He wielded a wicked bludgeon, however. If Sewell comes through with the same brand of baseball he exhibited in 1920, all well and good.

While Coveleskie and Bagby will without a doubt again be Speaker's hurling reliances, the Indians' leader is better equipped with mound men to start the coming season. A. L. Marshall than he was in 1920. The reason for this is the addition of Walter Mills, the out-pitching person who came up last fall from the Pacific Coast League, rescuing the Forest City flingers when it seemed as though they were about to crack under the strain. Mills last season twirled sensationally. This gives Speaker a reliable left-hander—something badly needed by every club.

The remainder of the Indians' flingers will be picked from Ray Caldwell, Guy Morton, George Uhle and Clark, who were with the club last season; and Pott, Odenwald and Pett, three recruits. Steve O'Neill, regarded as one of the best catchers in the national pastime, will again do the bulk of the receiving, with Les Nunamaker and Chet Thomas, both veterans, as his assistants. Mills and Brunnett, a pair of youngsters, also are striving for positions.

Except for that position at short Speaker's infield will be manned by veterans, who have gone through more than one campaign. Doc Johnston and George Burns are scheduled to alternate at first base, the former against right-handers and the latter against southpaws. Bill Wambagans, who turned the only unassisted triple play in the world series history, will again be at second, and Larry Gardner at third. Sewell, of course, will start at short.

Four other inner gardeners will strive for berths. They are Harry Lunte, Guisto, Wagner and Stevenson. Lunte, Guisto, Wagner and Stevenson are scheduled to report until June. Speaker will again be in center field, Joe Evans and Jamieson are scheduled to alternate in left field and Smith and Wood in right. This gives Speaker five veterans. In addition, Speaker has the veteran Jack Graney and a youngster named James, who, according to reports from the South, has been making a good showing.

The Indians' success this season, however, depends on the ability of the new recruits. The first of the dual regattas, looming up for April 16, it is possible that some of them will be able to get back on a regular basis before that time, but if not, Coach Wright will be in hard luck. He is running a heavy and a light crew and two of the men come from his heavy organization, the other three in his lighter boat as Coach Wright has a long way to go in making some experimental shifts in the crimson boat promoting Pond from the first to the second, and the same time shifting McCarg from 7 to 6.

France Goes Us One Better. As predicted some time ago in this column, the Chamber of Deputies of Paris unanimously adopted a bill this week making physical training compulsory for both sexes in France, covering boys over 16 years of age and girls in the primary and secondary tuition grades.

The rules will be specified by the Ministry of Public Instruction. And yet we of the United States, who have been the ones really instrumental in bringing foreign countries like France to realize the value of the value of athletic instructions, still hesitate. The previous record held by the United States in Congress should be passed as the first step.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., April 1.—Coach Farrell and 15 members of the Michigan track team leave here tonight for Berkeley, where, next week, the Wolverines meet the University of California. Ames After Mat Honors. The Missouri Valley Conference hopes to win a national collegiate title this week. The Iowa State College wrestling team is entertaining the grapplers from Penn State at Ames, and the victors will gain the championship. The first bouts will be held this evening.

Werner Is Beaten By ANDERSON IN NET MATCH

NEW YORK, April 1.—Frederick C. Anderson, Princeton, in his battle for a place in the semifinal round of the national indoor tennis championship singles here yesterday. Anderson's net attack and his short volleys into the corners of the court proved too severe for Werner. The latter held Anderson 4-all on games in the first set. After that Anderson was always in the lead to win 6-4, 6-2.

S. Howard Voshell was again in action in the doubles with Richards as his partner. The pair gained a place in the semifinal of the doubles.

Camp Sees Year's Athletic Feature In Pennsy Games

British, French, Canadian and U. S. Track and Field Wonders Are Entered.

By Walter Camp.

NEW YORK, April 1.—What with the promised appearance of French and British track athletes at the Pennsylvania relays, together with representation of crack athletes from all parts of this country it looks as though the Franklin Field affair would size up as the most important event of its kind this year.

Today comes word that the remarkable pole vaulter, J. Enne of Washington State University, who has sailed over the bar at 13 feet 1 inch, will be at Philadelphia the last of next month to try conclusions with the Eastern cracks.

Miss Cummings to Play Abroad. Miss Edith Cummings of Onwentsia, whose good golf at Belleair is noticeable, is looming more largely as a factor in women's golf and is a member of the team of six or seven American golfers who will represent this country at Turnberry on the other side, May 30, in the women's championship. Miss Stirling is already over on the other side and the other representatives will probably be Miss Fowles, Miss Elkins, Miss Hollins, Miss Barlow and Mrs. Wright. Miss Cummings stood at the top in the qualifying round at Pinehurst this last week, but lost out later in the match play by a close score to Miss Fowles.

Spears at West Virginia. The University of West Virginia, still bearing in mind their really marvelous record when Rodgers was there, do not mean to let any grass grow under their feet in the 1921 season. For their new coach, Clarence W. Spears, former Dartmouth football head, arrived there this week to look things over.

That 1919 victory over Princeton looms large in the minds of the Morgantown people, and they mean to make a showing this fall that will keep them in the limelight.

Penn. Crew Crippled. Just as everything is looking bright in the rowing world comes a blow to Pennsylvania in the declaration of ineligibility pronounced against five of their crew. This too, with the Yale race, one of the first of the dual regattas, looming up for April 16, it is possible that some of them will be able to get back on a regular basis before that time, but if not, Coach Wright will be in hard luck.

SPORT SALAD

SPRING SONG. THE first upset our apple cart And fluted our heart with woe; Oh, Weatherman, please have a heart, Our coal is getting low.

We thought we had enough to run For thirty days or more; Now must we buy another ton, Or maybe three or four?

You're really put us in the hole With blizzards from the North. Must we continue burning coal Until July the fourth?

The frost is on the apple crop And likewise on the peaches; Now don't you think it's time to stop, And let us wear Palm Beaches?

Three weeks ago I climbed into My famous bevedeees; So, Weatherman, it's up to you To qualify the breeze.

And, furthermore, lest we forget, The baseball season's here. And both our local teams are set To have a banner year.

A CINCH. ONE more day until the Browns! And the Cardinals begin! We will see the home team win.

TIME. The next thing on the program will be the three-cornered fight between Old Sol, J. Pluvius and Jack Frost.

Old Sol is a little bit backward this spring, but Jack Frost and J. Pluvius are in mid-season form.

After four draws Capablanca succeeded in winning a game of chess from Dr. Lasker. Shows what perseverance will do.

We thought Jack Dempsey was with the punch, but those chess champs carry a sleep-producer in either mitt.

If the police don't stop it this chess match ought to be over by the first of August.

See where Senator Spencer is standing pat on what he said. How about Biogdget?

BILLY COLLINS TAKES MAT MATCH FROM PERRY

Billy Collins, the local grappler, took two straight falls from Ray Perry, Bellefontaine, O., in the feature bout of the Stag A. C. wrestling program last night. The first fall came after 49 minutes with a head scissor and arm lock, while 25 minutes later, after a long and hard battle, he broke his right hand. Perry was the aggressor.

Other bouts: Joe Sanderson, Detroit won in straight falls from Mike Moroney, New Orleans, and Albert Roseng did the same against Emil Nabors. Herman Heitzinger served as referee.

St. Andrews Club Specialist to Join Sunset Hill Corps

Fred Low, Maker of Golfing Tools, Comes 4000 Miles to Fill Local Position.

The St. Louis Country Club went to Worcester, Mass., for a caddy-master and Algonquin imported its new professional from St. Andrews; but it remained for the Sunset Hill Club to send 4000 miles to Scotland for a club-maker.

Fred Low is expected to arrive here next week from Canouette, Scotland, a famous golfing rendezvous, to make club shafts for the Sunset players. A large shipment of the famous iron-heads arrived from St. Andrews at the Sappington road caddy-shack last week and the club man will start immediately to fashion sticks for these after the models of the most famous players.

Low received his stick-making education in the shop of Bob Simpson, where it is said the finest clubs are made. Like Aleck Auchterlonie, the new "pro" at Algonquin, he was employed in this country before the war and then returned to Scotland to join the forces of his native country. For two seasons before enlisting, Low was employed at the Worcester (Mass.) Country Club. Since demobilization he has remained at Canouette.

Maiden to Return Monday. Stewart Maiden, Country Club professional, will arrive to assume his duties next Monday. For a time it was thought that Maiden would leave the local club and return to Algonquin. However he was prevailed upon to remain, inasmuch as the national amateur championship is to be held on the Price road fairways this season.

Cole Playing Good Game. Ray Cole, Jim Barnes' successor at Sunset Hill, has been back on the job only a few days, but has had time to play the sporty course in a which is a stroke under par. Inasmuch as this was Cole's first round, he was a fair success for him. He has served as "pro" at Belleair, Fla., during the winter.

Kirkwood to Open New Course. The complete 18-hole course of the Kirkwood Country Club will be opened by June first, according to present plans. Heretofore the club has had a nine-hole links, but with a full membership and a long waiting list, it was seen fit to adopt the regulation 18 and increase the yardage to 6,000. A dining pavilion and clubhouse are completed, the membership will be raised from 200 to 300.

The club has let a contract for a locker room accommodating 115 lockers, while the present one can be converted into a billiard and grill room, a dancing pavilion and a large ladies' room and kitchen are included among the other improvements.

SEATTLE MAN OFFERS $850,000 FOR TITLE GO

SPOKANE, Wash., April 1.—Alexander Pantages of Seattle has offered Tex Rickard an offer of $850,000 for the Dempsey-Carpentier championship match, according to word received here last night by E. G. Milne of Seattle, an agent of Mr. Pantages.

Pantages in a telegram to Milne stated if his offer was accepted by Rickard and Washington authorities would not allow the contest to be held in this State, he would look next to Vancouver, B. C., as a possible site.

RALPH GREENLEAF SETS NEW HIGH RECORD

YORK, Pa., April 1.—Ralph Greenleaf, champion pocket billiard player, established a new world's record high run in an exhibition here last night when he pocketed 149 balls before he missed. The previous record held by him was 134, made by Greenleaf in Danbury, Conn.

BELL KAYOES ARTHUR. Clarence "Kid" Bell of Memphis stopped Battling Arthur in the second round of the scheduled feature bout on the Pastime A. C. boxing card last night. Eugene Simms knocked out "Dummy" Jordan in the third round of their bout, and Young Hardy administered the same treatment to Young Hollings in the fifth session.

Whose Title Is It? Johnny Buff is circulating about the country wearing the bay leaves of the flyweight champion. He claims to have lifted them from the classic brow of Frankie Mason at New Orleans. Buff snuffed out Abe Goldstein last night at New York, and it was announced that he defended his title in that bout.

In justice to Mason it should be pointed out that Mason's 15-round defeat by Buff took place under a weight agreement calling for 115 pounds, as shown by articles exhibited here by Mason. As the flyweight limit is 112 pounds and Mason never weighs more than 110, Buff can hardly claim the title.

DIEGEL AND HUTCHINSON WILL PLAY IN ENGLAND

PINEHURST, N. C., April 1.—Leo Diegel of Detroit and Jack Hutchinson of Chicago will be members of the team of American professionals making the trip to St. Andrews, Scotland, to play in the British open golf championship in June. They announced here last night. Diegel and Hutchinson, with Harry Vardon and Jack Birkbeck, will make up the team for the winner, in the United States open championship last year at Toledo.

Local fans have been clamoring for a match between Peewee and either Patay Flanagan or Jimmy Murphy, but the experience of these two boys prevents this match from being arranged at this time.

Soccer Cup Final Date April 19 At Fall River, Mass.Secretary Cahill Announces Sculins-Robins Game Will Be Held on Holiday.

Answering a telegram from the Post-Dispatch, Honorary Secretary Tom Cahill of the United States Football Association wired the Post-Dispatch at noon today the committee's selection of a site and date for the final of the United States soccer championship, which now rests between the Scullins of St. Louis and the Robins Dry Dock team of New York.

Cahill stated that the date selected was April 19, which is one of the most important sectional holidays of the vicinity, Lexington day, and the site Fall River, Mass., the home of many good soccer cup entries in past seasons. The neutral choice will be popular.

The Scullins won their way to the final by defeating the Caledonians of Detroit in St. Louis, while the Robins won their half of the semifinals by trimming the Tebo Yacht Basin team decisively.

Harry Ratican, a St. Louis boy, will play against the St. Louis team for the Robins.

The present holders of the title are the Ben Millers, who defeated the Fore River (Mass.) team last year in the final at St. Louis.

A Remarkable Value

Hutcheson Special Oxfords appeal this spring very strongly to those who demand the maximum service, the best styles and a perfect fit at a moderate price.

Last winter we doubted we would be able to offer at this price a shoe of the quality we demanded in our Hutcheson Special Oxfords. The slump in the leather market in February "did the trick." Our orders were placed when prices reached their lowest point and the result is a real quality Oxford at

We will make an announcement Sunday that will interest every man who is particular about his footwear.

"That's the Brand"

White Banner
Malt Extract

(FORMERLY KNOWN AS BLUE RIBBON MALT EXTRACT)

"That's the Brand," is always the delightful exclamation of men-who-know, when they see a can of White Banner Malt Extract.

It's the brand that men are recommending because they have found that its use always insures results.

Go to your grocer, druggist or delicatessen —point out the malt extract with the familiar red and yellow label—say, "That's the Brand!"

Buy that brand—the White Banner Brand —and your future satisfaction is certain.

Sale and Use Lawful

When Prohibition compelled Brewers to go out of business, a serious problem remained.
The plants were there—the employees were there—the invested capital was there.
What could be done?

Our solution was to organize a new company that would retain the services of our employees and utilize the existing equipment in manufacturing malt extract. Today, the plant is running, our employees are still with us. Again the golden grain comes in and passes through many of the same processes as of old, but the product is White Banner Malt Extract—a food of recognized value.

You can ask for White Banner Malt Extract anywhere. Its sale and use are absolutely legal.

STOCK MARKET OPENS WEAK, BUT RAISES FOLLOW

Oil and Tobacco Shares Sub- jected to Pressure With Loss of Four Points— Bears Raid Atlantic Gulf.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, April 1.—The Evening Post, in its copyrighted financial review today, says:

"After a weak opening the stock market developed a number of rallies and reactions, with trading only moderately active and with the bear market meeting with less success than on yesterday. Oil and tobacco shares were subjected to pressure, a maximum depression of 4 points being forced. At about 2 o'clock a sharp rally on Atlantic Gulf failed to have much effect on the rest of the list, whereupon, under the leadership of old-line and new-line stocks, the market stiffened up. Toward the close considerable irregularity existed over the whole list, gains and losses among rails being fractional and amounting to a point or two among industrials. Call money remained at 6 1/2 per cent all day.

Reaction Continues in Exchanges.

"Reaction continued in the European exchange with considerable diversity of opinion as to the cause. London cables mentioned the coal miners' strike as a factor, but there was an inclination in this market to throw doubt on this explanation and to regard the reaction as a natural one, bidding here during the early part of the week having pushed out quotations beyond those in the London market. There is the added point to consider that the strength came on the days when money was easier here and in demand in London, and that the reaction coincided with a tightening here and signs of easing in London. At all events sterling went as low as $2.90, which is 1 1/2 cents below yesterday's close and 3 1/2 cents below the high of the week. Later in the day bidding became more active and the quotation advanced to $2.91 1/2.

"With the exception of Danish kroner, which advanced, the other European exchanges moved in sympathy with sterling. On the rally franc still showed a loss of 3 points at 6.92 cents, and lire 1 point at 4.06, while marks were 1 point lower at 1.24 cents. With silver off 1/2 of a penny at London at 32 1/2 pence, the Chinese exchange was weaker but rupees advanced fractionally.

Grains Fall to New Low Records.

"All the grains fell to new low records on anticipations that the forthcoming Government crop report will show a condition about 90 per cent and will forecast a unusually large yield. May wheat broke 4 1/2 cents to $1.34 1/2, closing half cent higher, while the July delivery touched $1.14 1/2. Of the other grains May corn closed at 59 cents and May oats at 37c. When it is remembered that at London at 32 1/2 pence, the Chinese exchange was weaker but rupees advanced fractionally.

Fiddle Public.

Despite his shabby clothing and empty pockets, it was evident that he had seen better days.
A sympathetic soul began to chat with him, anxious to hear his story. Over a cup of cocoa he told his tale.
"Yes," he said, "I've been quite a personage in my time; in fact, the cynosure of all eyes."
His auditor waited in silence for an explanation.
"I was the tattooed man in the circus," he went on.
"And how did you lose your job?" he was asked.
"Public went crazy on moving pictures," he replied sadly, "and mine won't budge!"—Houston Post.

Can Prove It.

The Referee in Bankruptcy: When you arranged for that credit you said you and your partner had a hundred thousand dollars between you. Was that statement true?
The Bankrupt: Sure, it was true. I lived on one side of the Local Trust and Savings Bank and he lived on the other.—Detroit News.

Line Forms on the Right.

Just before the service the minister was called into the vestibule by a young couple, who asked that he marry them. He answered he had not time then but that if they would wait until after the sermon he would be glad to accommodate them. Accordingly, just before the benediction, he announced:
"Will those who wish to be married today please come forward!"

"How did Dubbs become a millionaire so quickly?"
"He's an importer."
"From Europe?"
"Nope, from Canada."—American Legion Weekly.

MORE TRUTH THAN POETRY
By James J. Montague.

TROUBLE.
The cat is on the pantry shelf
With eyes that bulge with fright;
The Alredale pup has hid himself
Somewhere far out of sight;
The little kids their lesson learn
And neither romp nor sport,
For father's income tax return
Was forty dollars short.

It took a week to make it out
And mother, in despair,
Would say, "You must not stay about
And hear your father swear."
He'd pull his hair with frightful yanks
Until it was a sight;
He spotted half a dozen blanks
Before he got it right.

And when at last he put it in
The big long envelope,
He said to mother, with a grin,
"Well, that is done, I hope."
But yesterday a letter came,
And goosh, how father swore,
When he found in it was a claim
For forty dollars more.

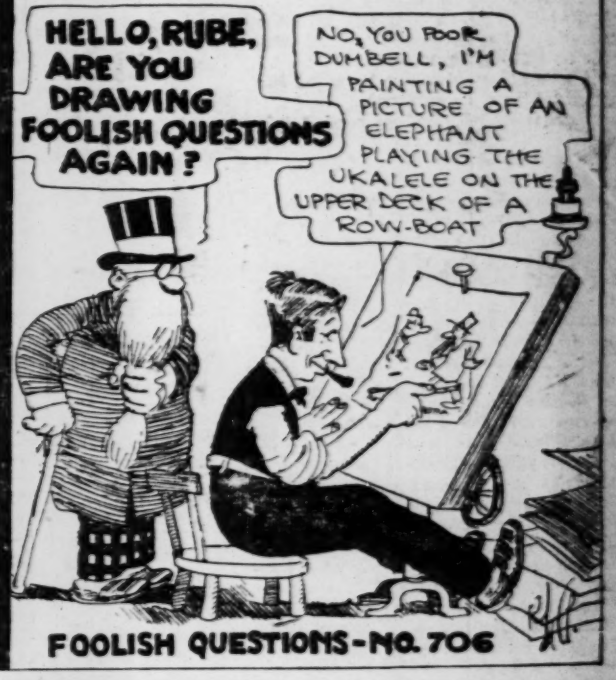

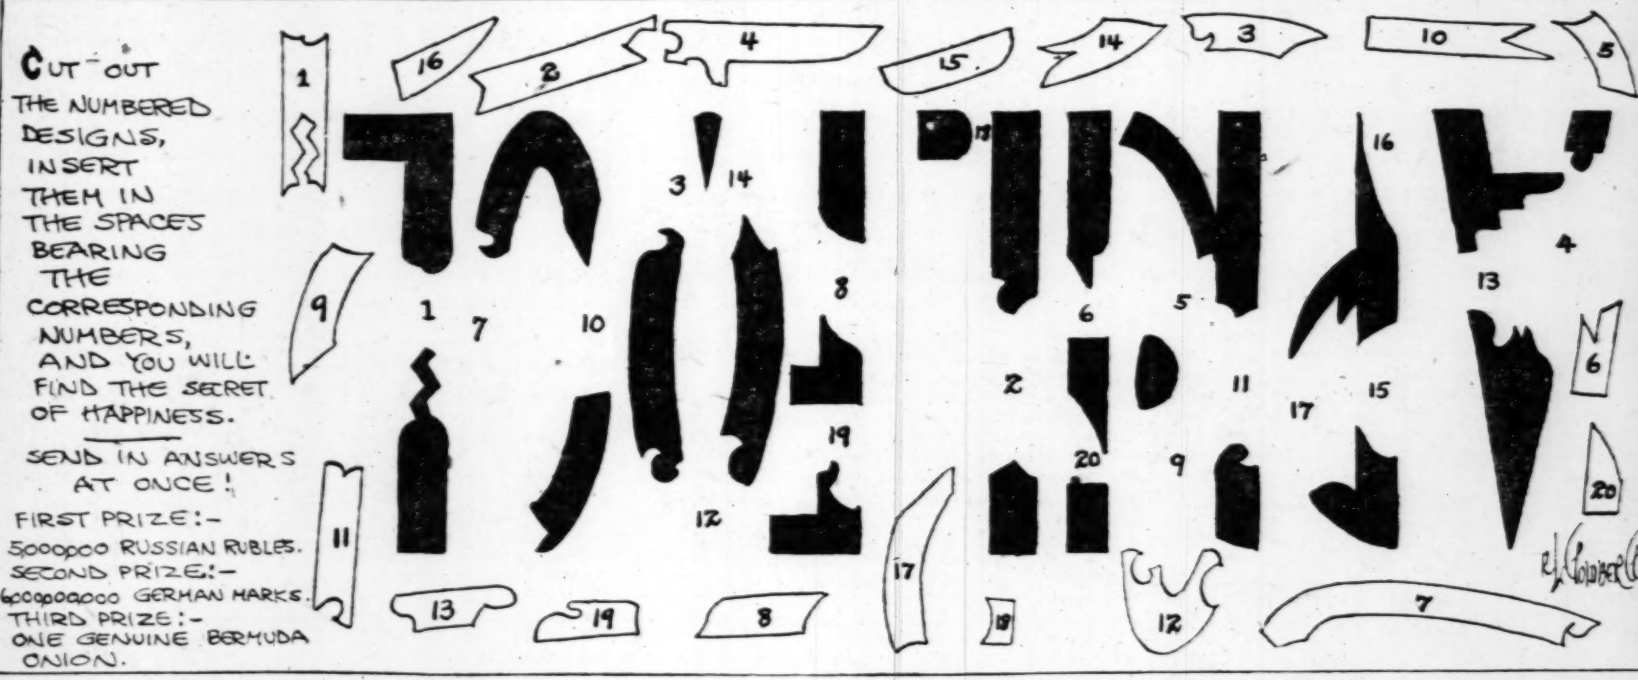

He's locked up in his bedroom now
And won't come out at all,
And mother simply won't allow
The kids to cross the hall.
And everybody's frightened stiff,
While every now and then They wonder what will happen if He gets it wrong again!
